POET'S CORNER

IN A LOCAL STORE WINDOW

(By Orpha Collins)
We've seen the big-flowered dresses
Seen the models dressed in slacks,
Seen bathing-beauty "doodads"
Displayed for fronts and backs.
But the thing that's got us starin'
It'll knock you for a roll—
Is that little "Fiji Island" gal
As she looks, out for a stroll.

"Crocodile tears" is used as a term of hypocrisy because the reptile cries when it fills its mouth with food.

Big Game Hunters May Now Apply For Oregon Tags

Applications are now being accepted by the Oregon State Game commission for the various special big game tags to be issued for the 1943 hunting season. Applications will be kept on file and if by August 16, more applications are received than the specified quota of tags, then a drawing will be held to determine the issuance. If the quota for any particular allotment of tags is not reached by August 16, then all applications on hand will be filled and the rest of the tags issued in the order applications are received until all tags are sold.

A person may apply for a tag by sending in to the Game commission office at 616 Oregon Building, Portland, the specified fee and information as to the type of tag desired, number and kind of hunting license held, and name and address. This information may be mailed in a letter or on a special application form that has been prepared for the purpose.

There will be 2,500 doe tags for Grant county but only for a certain area lying north of the highway between Canyon City and Dayville. The part south of the highway where doe hunting has been previously allowed will not be open this fall. For the Lake Klamath area, 6,000 doe tags will be issued, and for the Steens mountain area 1,000 tags. Persons wishing to apply the doe tags may apply for only one of these three areas. Fees for the tags are: $3.50 for residents and $5 for nonresidents. Open season for deer is from October 1 to November 3.

The cow elk area has been changed somewhat from last year and 2,000 tags at $5 for residents and $25 for nonresidents will be issued.

The entire state will be open to bull elk hunting from October 26 to November 30 while elk of either sex may be taken in an area in southeastern Oregon bounded on the north by highway 28 and on the west by highways 97, 62 and 99.

For the antelope area in Lake, Harney and Malheur counties, 2,500 tags have been authorized at $2.50 each for residents and $5 for nonresidents. Open season is from September 18 to October 3.

The federal government has deemed it advisable to reduce the deer herds in a certain portion of the Hart Mountain National Antelope refuge and for this purpose authorization has been granted to issue 250 buck deer and 400 doe deer tags for the western part of the reserve, the open season to be October 9 to 24, inclusive. These tags will be sold at $3.50 for residents and $5 for nonresidents and may be applied for in addition to the other doe tags mentioned before.

Ramirez Nearly K. O.'s Garrison; Bout Called Draw

PORTLAND, July 13.—(AP)—Rodolfo Ramirez, 145-pound Mexican, was the uncrowned king of Pacific coast welterweights in the hearts of Portlanders today, although his 15-round bout with Jimmy Garrison, 147, Kansas City, ended in a draw last night.

A crowd of 5100 cheered him loudly at the close of the action-filled contest, billed by promoters as a west coast championship fight. They stayed on to boo roundly the referee's draw decision.

The bout was hard-fought and even through the earlier rounds, but in the tenth and twelfth Ramirez apparently had Garrison on the verge of a knockout. Garrison came back, however, to fight the Mexican to a standstill in the closing round.

There were no knockdowns, but Garrison was badly marked, bleeding from the mouth and with one eye almost shut.

In the semi-final Joe Kahut, 165, hard-hitting Woodburn fighter, gained a decision over Young Otto, 172, Portland, in a ten-round bout advertised as an Oregon light-heavyweight championship contest.

Kahut boxed constantly and had the Portland Negro visibly tired by the bout's end. The Woodburn boy won five of the last six rounds.

Other results:
Mel Ruffers, 140, Portland, drew with Mickey Pease, 145, Portland; Jack Biddle, 161, Seattle, defeated Zeb Smith, 168, Portland.

Zivic Evens Score With Decision Over Lamotta

PITTSBURGH, July 13.—(AP)—He's 30 years old and his legs aren't the tireless legs they were when he wore the welterweight crown, but Fritz Zivic is still in there fighting and he isn't far from the top of the class.

He proved it last night in ten rounds of superb boxing with 20-year-old joltin' Jake Lamotta, the only man to beat Ray "Sugar" Robinson, though the Brooklyn boy came back hard enough in the last five rounds to win the backing of one judge.

"It was a tougher fight than the first one," admitted Zivic, who lost a split decision to Lamotta in the same ring last June 10, "but I feel sure I was ahead all the time."

And the crowd of 15,562 agreed that he was as he kept Lamotta, who outweighed him by six and one-half pounds, at the painful end of a tantalizing left jab.

Turpin Quits Rainiers For Farm at Yoncalla

SEATTLE, July 13.—(AP)—Hal Turpin, ace hurler for Seattle in the Pacific coast league, will be seen no more this year in a Rainier uniform.

Turpin, a consistent 20-game winner, has decided to devote all his time to his Yoncalla, Ore., farm, it was learned last night.

He had been expected to pitch weekends for the Rainiers when they played in Portland and Seattle but telephoned club officials last night that the shortage of farm labor made even that plan impossible.

Ortiz, Bantam Champ, Knocks Out Robleto

SEATTLE, July 13.—(AP)—Manuel Ortiz, the undisputed bantamweight champion of the world, demonstrated his right to the title here last night with an impressive seventh-round technical knockout over Joe Robleto of Pasadena, Calif.

Battered and groggy, the challenger was hanging to the ropes with his head bobbing back and forth like a punching bag from the champion's swings when Referee Eddie Pinkman stopped it at the end of a minute in the seventh round.
