CHILD-KOHLHAGEN PARTY IS CHARMING AFFAIR HONORING MISS BUICK

A jolly birthday party honoring Miss N. Jeannie Buick was given Friday by Mrs. George Kohlhausen and Mrs. George Child, co-hostesses, at the Umpqua. The guests were the friends and neighbors who lived in Roseburg, when the Buick girls came home from Germany and Mrs. Kohlhausen and Mrs. Child were brides. The only exception, was the donor and arranger of the beautiful flowers, Mrs. Washington Hughes, an intimate present-day neighbor.

Much merriment was enjoyed in the memories and the retelling of old stories and experiences. Mrs. Child acted as toast-mistress and tied the stories and events together as she called on the different speakers.

Mrs. Flint McCall gave a loving tribute to the parents of the guest of honor, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. K. Buick. Mrs. George Sewell then told of her girlhood humility and timidity that lost her and the state of Oregon the great J. Pierpont Morgan. Mrs. Walter Hamilton followed this sad tale with a description of Miss Jennie Buick's great gift of housewifery. Mrs. George M. Brown vividly described the beauties of that place of poetry grown dear to all of the guests, "Bellows Grove." Miss Rosa B. Parrott told of the varied entertainments showing how strong has always been Roseburg's happy, far-reaching hospitality. Mrs. Douglas Waite concluded the gay memories with an amusing description of the fashions of those days, when the girls wore nine yard skirts, door-wide sleeves and unmeasurable bustles.

Guests invited by Mrs. Child and Mrs. Kohlhausen in compliment to Miss Buick were: Mrs. J. F. Barker, Mrs. A. Bellows, Mrs. Velle Broadway, Mrs. George M. Brown, Mrs. B. Casey, Mrs. Walter Hamilton, Mrs. Washington Hughes, Mrs. L. W. Josse, Mrs. L. Kohlhausen, Sr., Mrs. Flint McCall, Miss Rosa B. Parrott, Mrs. W. H. Richardson, Mrs. S. A. Sanford, Mrs. J. E. Mrs. Donald Wimberly is spending her vacation here as the guest of her parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, on Glenn street. She was accompanied here by her sister, Miss Ruth Stump, who left Thursday for California to spend the remainder of her vacation with relatives.

Celebrates Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Emmitt

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Emmitt, prominent resident of Douglas county for many years, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Sunday, July 11, by holding open house at their attractive home at 120 South Parrott street during the afternoon hours. Relatives and friends called during the afternoon and presented many very beautiful gifts and bouquets of colorful summer blossoms to Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt in observance of the occasion.

The buffet table was covered by a very attractive lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of gold-colored summer flowers, while bouquets of gladioli, hydrangeas and numerous other blossoms were arranged about the rooms.

Two sons, Floyd Emmitt, of this city, and Marion Emmitt, of Umpqua, were present for the occasion, however the Emmitts' two daughters, Mrs. Crystal Wing, of Philadelphia, Pa., and Mrs. Ruby Harvie, of Portland, were unable to be present. Four sisters of Mr. Emmitt were present and included: Mrs. Jane Coffman, Mrs. Rose Clayton, Mrs. Kittle Von Pessl and Miss Ella Emmitt, all of this city.

Lovely refreshments were served by Miss Jean Turner, Miss Barbara Freeman, Miss Frances Moore and Miss June Clayton. Assisting Mrs. Emmitt with preparations for the reception were: Mrs. E. Prinsen and daughter, Miss Bernadine, and Mrs. Frances Long.

Mrs. Emmitt was charming in an afternoon frock of white printed jersey, fashioned with a draped bodice and full skirt. She wore a pearl necklace and matching earrings.

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt were: Marion and Floyd Emmitt, sons of the guests of honor; Mrs. Jane Coffman, Mrs. Rose Clayton, Mrs. Kittle Von Pessl and Miss Ella Emmitt, sisters of Mr. Emmitt; Louise Lehman, Mrs. Frances Long, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Crummett, Mrs. T. B. Viriden, Mrs. Eunice Story and family; Miss Edith Stages, Mrs. D. Meyers, Mrs. Lucie Ingels, Miss Elizabeth Paul, Mrs. E. Prinsen and daughter, Miss Bernadine; Miss Jean Turner, Miss Barbara Freeman, Miss Frances Moore, Miss June Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hallcraft, Nellie C. Wilbur, Hazel Haines, Lauree Winniford, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fowler and Marjorie; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas LaBrie, A. J. Hochradel, Mrs. Martin Kelly, A. C. Marsters and H. B. Thompson and Vera Bacon, all of Umpqua; Mrs. Helen Hakanson and Margaret Hakanson, of Seattle, and James Mortensen, of Coos Junction.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt are in good health and maintain an attractive home and garden on South Parrott street. Mrs. Emmitt, nee Myrtilla Rader, was born February 28, 1876, to Mr. and Mrs. William Rader, in Kentucky and came with her parents and family to Kellogg, Douglas county, at the age of six. Following her education, she taught school in this county for a year, before marrying Mr. Emmitt, on July 11, 1893, at Oakland, Oregon. Mr. Emmitt was born October 29, 1860, in Coles valley to Mr. and Mrs. John Emmitt, prominent Douglas county pioneers, who crossed the plains to the west coast in wagon trains in the early pioneer days of this state.

Following the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt, they made their home on a large stock ranch at Umpqua for 43 years, moving to Roseburg seven years ago to retire from active business. The ranch is now operated by their son Marion.

They are the parents of seven children, four of whom are living and include: Mrs. Crystal Wing, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Ruby Harvie, of Portland; Floyd Emmitt, of Roseburg, and Marion Emmitt, of Umpqua. They have four grandchildren: Marlene and Gary Emmitt, of Umpqua, and Edward and Roger Wing, of Philadelphia.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt have hundreds of friends in the county, who wish them continued happiness.

Mrs. Loren Harvey entertained at her home at Riverside Tuesday evening, honoring her sister, Miss Maxine Rand, who is soon leaving for Minneapolis, Minnesota.

During the evening each of the guests were presented with a white satin ribbon tied in a bow and fastened with a miniature airplane. On the ribbon was typed a brief announcement of the engagement of Miss Rand to Lloyd Christensen of Minneapolis. Following the announcement the hostess presented the guest of honor with a V brooch, studded with brilliant in red, white and blue.
