an end to Hitler and the war in Europe will be over.
 But not before.

DON'T be confused by all this diplomatic double-talk (indulged in by little Victor Emanuel, Badoglio, etc.) about "Italy grievously stricken in her invaded provinces and her ruined towns, maintaining her faith in her given word, jealous of her ancient traditions" and so on, "going on with the war."
 It's eye-wash.

Italy is licked and knows it, and tired of Mussolini and knows it and tired of Hitler and knows it.

SHE'S going out of the war as quickly and as easily as she can GET OUT, and it's poor little jittery Victor Emanuel's job to get her out as painlessly as possible. She's fortunate to have him there to push the buttons and pull the strings—thus (maybe) saving her from the blood and terror that are the more or less inevitable accompaniment of revolutions.

WHAT is Germany's reaction? Well, you can bet your bottom dollar that it ISN'T satisfaction.

THE dispatches tell us the Berlin radio maintained shocked silence for five hours and then observed weakly that Mussolini is out because of his "health."
 Which is true enough. It wouldn't have been healthy for him to remain much longer in the face of the wreckage that has been wrought by his gangster rule to Italian generally.

When the equivalent wreckage wrought by Hitler becomes correspondingly evident to GERMANS, it won't be healthy for Hitler to stay on either.

If you're old enough to remember back to 1917, when Czarist Russia went out of the war on OUR side, you'll know how the Germans are feeling today.

We were practically panicky, although by that time it was clearly apparent to us that Czarist Russia was about as Italy is now.

You can be sure the Germans aren't feeling good about it.

BUT keep this ALWAYS in mind:
 The thing that will bring the Germans to the point the Italians have already reached is the shattering knowledge that THEY ARE LICKED.

Our job now just as BEFORE Italy's downfall, is to bring that knowledge HOME to them.

NEWS OF OUR MEN AND WOMEN IN UNIFORM

Walter J. Gilbert, 17, son of Mrs. Mahel M. Dumont, Myrtle Creek, this week enlisted in the United States coast guard in Seattle. After receiving three months of preliminary training in seamanship and service duties, Gilbert either will be assigned to active duty or will be sent to one of the coast guard's many advanced training schools for specialized courses.

Word has been received at Days Creek that John Dean, who for some months has been stationed at the Jackson air base in Mississippi, was recently promoted from the rank of sergeant to that of staff sergeant. Shortly after receiving his promotion, he was assigned to the Army air base at Syracuse, N. Y. where

WE NEED YOUR HELP
 EDITORIAL
 By Charles V. Stanton

THE News-Review is in a manpower jam again and is in particular need of cooperation from advertising patrons. Two members of our mechanical force, both in key positions, are in the hospital, leaving us very critically short-handed.

However, we do not anticipate any material let-down in service, and expect to be able to handle the full volume of advertising copy, providing patrons will cooperate by observing a time element.

Mr. Gau, our printer and advertising foreman, is convalescing in Eugene from a major operation. Ross Jacobs has been substituting for Mr. Gau in the advertising department.

Lorne Swenson, linotype operator, entered the hospital today for a major operation.

Printers and linotype operators are hard to find these days, as it takes a great deal of experience to be able to do either of these jobs. Consequently, the labor shortage being what it is, we probably will have to operate with a limited crew until our two ailing members are back on the job.

Fortunately, Jacobs is not only a good printer, but also a linotype operator, so he will be able to double on the typesetting machines. And Harlan Carter, manager of the commercial printing department, also will give some time to the keyboard. Walter Fredrickson, pressman, stereotyper and engraver, and Ellen Crabtree, makeup, will help in the ad alleys, and the editor probably will don his ink-smearer apron and dig his make-up rule into the type galleys at intervals.

Altogether it looks like plenty of work for everyone around the back shop for the next three or four weeks.

You advertisers can give us a lot of help during the time we are short handed by getting your copy in early. If it is at all possible, have your copy in our office by 10 a. m. or earlier, on the day PRECEDING the date of publication. If that is done we can use overtime labor, if necessary, to set up the type for advertisements.

Persons having news items for publication can also be of assistance in cases where the time element is not important. Advance notices of meetings, publicity on forthcoming activities, etc., should be furnished as far ahead of the date of publication as possible. Please don't rush in at the last minute before our deadline with an item if it is possible for you to give the information the day before publication.

If we are given your cooperation, we can maintain our service. We may be a little late in getting the paper on the press occasionally, but we'll do the best we can.

DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

Temperance is no lost cause nor will it be so long as there is a God in Heaven and as long as there are disciples of God working on this earth. The fight against the liquor traffic is still on. If this liquor traffic is ever beaten, the church will beat it. What is more, if the church does not beat it, she may find herself beaten or at least losing her position of power in the community. It is still up to the church, for only a purified church can be powerful church. When the Eighteenth amendment went down and out a good many people in the church came to the conclusion that the whole cause of temperance had gone down and out with it, and because so many thought that way and acted accordingly, it may be that we deserved to lose the fight. Prohibition did not fail, it was betrayed. Betrayed by men who were supposed to enforce it, betrayed by thousands of church men, betrayed by our political leaders at Washington, D. C., betrayed by too many of the people and forces that originated it. Let us keep this straight and clear. No amount of legislation can be substituted for moral education. We must concentrate and win. (Cushman) Amen.

he will receive cadet training. Since arriving there, he was stricken with an attack of appendicitis necessitating an operation from which he is now convalescing. He is most anxious to hear from his friends. Dean is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Dean, who for many years resided in the Days Creek area but who now live at Grants Pass.

Just a quick reminder that tonight is Take A Card 8:00, Sherlock Holmes 8:30 and Cal Tinney 9:15, and then on to the Thursday shows, there are some new spots for some of your old favorites there. For instance, and this is especially directed to the young fry of the family, you'll find Boy's Town has moved to 4:30 in the afternoon. This makes Thursday late afternoons especially your dish because there's Superman at 5:15 and Black Hood at 5:30. And, by the way, kids, if you really want Highway Patrol back again, keep on sending your cards to us and we'll see that they reach the powers that be. Maybe they'll listen to your requests if there are enough of them. Anyway, we promise you we'll do our part because (and this is strictly confidential) we liked it too.

Thursday p. m. at 5:00 marks the premiere of another program (this one to be broadcast from our main studio here at KRNR, it's tentatively titled "Junior Jubilee" and will consist entirely of local talent from the younger generation of the county. We haven't had a preview, so we'll listen, too, with much interest to hear what it's going to be—but we heard that it wasn't to follow any set pattern—sometimes music, sometimes other things. In fact it's rumored that there's to be a forum in a couple of weeks—so remember 5:00 o'clock on Thursdays after this. Now for Thursday evening—you'll hear Your Date With Fort Lewis 7:30, and your old favorite American Forum of the Air in its new spot at 8:00 o'clock. It has, you know, expanded to a full hour, so you'll hear it following the Fort Lewis show and it will run clear up to the Newspaper of the Air at 9:00—so get set for a full evening of good listening.

Commander Johnson Is Speaker at Kiwanis Club

Commander A. M. Johnson, Douglas county health officer, now on leave of absence while serving in the U. S. navy, was the speaker before the Roseburg Kiwanis club at its regular Tuesday luncheon meeting. Commander Johnson, who is venereal disease control officer for the naval district, told Kiwanians of the program of the military services for such control. He is enjoying a brief leave here.

High School Closing Hits Twenty Students

SALEM, Ore., July 28.—(AP)—About 20 high school students in the Scotts mills district will have to look for a new school next fall, voters in the district having voted to close the school. County School Superintendent Agnes Booth said today. The nearest high school is in Silverton, but the voters made no provision for transportation of the students.

Leave Packages for Scouts at C. of C. Office

Packages for boys attending the Scout camp at Wolf Creek should be left at the chamber of commerce office, camp officers reported today. A pick up of packages will be made Thursday of this week and at intervals thereafter.

Enrollment in Victory Council Still Increasing

Business, Professional Men Of Roseburg Approve Plan For War-Aid Advertising

The membership list of the Roseburg Victory Council continued to grow today and was nearing the 75 set as a minimum for organization. The formation of the council was given the endorsement of the county war savings staff, which advised that the group could be of great assistance in the promotion of war bond sales.

The council is being organized by merchants and professional men, who are agreeing to contribute a small sum weekly to sponsor the various war-aid projects through cooperative advertising.

The name, "Roseburg Victory Council," is being used only temporarily and may be changed by the committee in charge, having been adopted only for the purpose of organizational promotion.

A special committee, to be named by Jack Fariss, chairman of the Retail Merchants committee, will supervise the activities of the group by determining the programs to be sponsored and the amounts to be spent on each.

The council is being created for the purpose of eliminating frequent solicitations for cooperative sponsorship of advertising sought by the federal government and its various agencies on behalf of Home Front projects. Good Response Met

Merchants already have joined in sponsorship of advertisements in connection with the first salvage campaign, the Second War Loan drive and are now participating in the Aircraft Warning service campaign.

Listed for the near future are the Third War Loan drive, the Oregon War chest, forest fire prevention, Keep Oregon Green, and programs of various departments, particularly those engaged in rationing.

Advertisers of the nation last year spent 250 million dollars in war promotional advertising and the federal government is urging them to double that amount this year.

National leaders declare that this type of war aid is proving of the greatest benefit in building public interest and support, as well as maintaining production levels, war bond quotas, etc.
