CAMP FIRE GIRLS ANNUAL CAMP TO OPEN AUG. 8

The 1943 Camp Fire Girls camp will open August 8 and continue throughout the week at the Boy Scout Wolf creek camp with Miss Athalie Taylor, accredited Red Cross swimming instructor and a Camp Fire Girls worker for a number of years, as the camp director.

Miss Carolyn Allen and Miss Fredricka Hamilton, holders of junior and senior life saving certificates, and Miss Ethel Van Voorst will be assistants to Miss Taylor. In addition to swimming, hand and camp crafts will be taught. Mrs. Donn Radabaugh, Roseburg nurse, will be at the camp throughout the week.

Any resident of the community interested in making it possible for some girl to attend the Camp Fire camp, has been asked to call Mrs. Gordon Stewart. The camp fee for the week is $5. Registrations for camp are being taken during the week.

All bluebird girls having reached the age of 10, former Camp Fire girls, those now eligible to membership and all present members in the county are invited to attend the camp. Registration for Bluebirds is being extended over Monday and Tuesday of next week.

FILTER CENTER SOCIAL AFFAIR TO BE LARGE EVENT OF MONDAY NIGHT

Civilian defense workers and invited guests are anticipating with much pleasure the large social affair to be sponsored by the Filter Center members and the Fourth Fighter command in observance of the west coast air-raid warning service week to be held Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the armory.

Mrs. L. K. Fies is general chairman of the affair with Mrs. Ford Singleton in charge of invitations and decorations; Miss Helen Casey, chairman of entertainment and publicity, and Mrs. A. B. Taylor chairman of the refreshment committee. The ladies of the filter center will furnish the refreshments for the occasion.

The military band and entertainers from Camp Air will furnish the entertainment for the evening. A special feature will be the making of awards to members of the filter center having completed 500 and 1000 hours of service.

No, these 2-year-old triplets aren't for sale. It's their house that is, and they have to move. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James O'Connor, have been hunting all over Cleveland for another place to rent, but are running into the nationwide landlord taboo against children. "It's surprising how many people exclaim what they wouldn't give to have three lovely children like that in their home," says Mrs. O'Connor, whose husband is a war plant worker, "but just ask them to rent the upstairs of their two-family house to us and it's an entirely different story."

SALEM, July 29—(AP)—The state department of agriculture's weights and measures division has found only a few cases where fruit and vegetable growers have been cheating pickers by giving short weights.

The division has been inspecting scales used in berry, bean and fruit orchards, and almost all of the scales are accurate.

SALEM, July 29—(AP)—The state department of agriculture today cautioned cattle owners that cattle in Lane, Linn, Benton, Clackamas and Multnomah counties have been poisoned by ferns. The department said the poisoning may be confused with anthrax.

The department said that if cattle are fed properly, they are not likely to eat ferns.
