Eisenhower Made Base on Malta To Plan Invasion

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, Aug. 5.—(AP)—The island of Malta was disclosed today to have been General Dwight D. Eisenhower's operational headquarters for the allied attack on Sicily.

The general and his staff went there four days before the scheduled beginning of the offensive and he stayed in a palace built in 1540 by the Knights of St. John. There he was a guest of Field Marshal Lord Gort, governor general.

These facts were disclosed today as the allied commander-in-chief paid special tribute to the island's people, "the most bombed and shot on earth," to Lord Gort and to the Malta air force.

During Gen. Eisenhower's stay there, offices were placed in limestone tunnels, grim reminders of the year in which the island was subjected to more than 2,000 air raids.

There were two raids during that time but one of the general's aides said neither produced as much discomfort as sand flies capable of producing a fever of 104 degrees. Several of his staff were laid low that way while waiting for the invasion to begin.
