Extension Social Security Benefits Proposed by FDR

Atlantic Charter Extolled On Anniversary of Signing Of That Famous Document

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—(AP)—President Roosevelt, declaring the allies now "stand upon the threshold of major developments in this war," reaffirmed his belief today in the Atlantic charter pledges to establish world freedom.

In a formal statement commemorating both the second anniversary of the signing of the charter and the eighth birthday of the U. S. social security law, the chief executive came out again for extension of that act's benefits to many groups not now covered and also for health protection.

He said the allies are determined to gain "total victory" over the axis and recognize as enemies not only Germany, Italy and Japan, but all "forces of oppression, intolerance, insecurity and injustice."

His statement follows: "Today, on the second anniversary of the signing of the Atlantic charter, I would cite particularly two of its purposes and principles on which we base our hopes for a better future for the world.

"First—Respect for the right of all peoples to choose the form of government under which they will live. When the Atlantic charter was first signed, there were those who said that this was impossible of achievement. And yet, today, as the forces of liberation march on, the right of self-determination is becoming once more a living reality.

"Second—World-wide collaboration with the object of security, for all; of improved labor standards, economic adjustment and social security.

"It happens that today is also the anniversary of the day, in 1935, when our own American social security act became law.

"That humanitarian law made a real beginning toward the abolition of want in this country. More than 60 million workers with their own contributions are building security for their old age and for their families in case of death. Several million are already enjoying benefits.

"However, in all fairness, and in all equity, we should extend these benefits to farmers, farm laborers, small businessmen, and others working for themselves or in occupations specifically excluded by law. We should extend social security to provide protection against the serious economic hazard of ill health.

"We are now fighting a great war. We fight on the side of the United Nations each and every one of whom has subscribed to the purposes and principles of the Atlantic charter.

"Today, we stand upon the threshold of major developments in this war. We are determined that we shall gain total victory over our enemies, and we recognize the fact that our enemies are not only Germany, Italy and Japan; they are all the forces of oppression, intolerance, insecurity and injustice which have impeded the forward march of civilization."

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Darken Hitler's Sky

Hitler laughed when Goering's Luftwaffe rode roughshod over Coventry, Warsaw and Rotterdam, but now that our plants are turning out more than 300 planes daily the Germans are learning the bitter experience of aerial war. Fighter planes cost about $50,000 each; bombers from $200,000 up.

To keep pace with this terrific pace Americans will have to place their savings on a wartime basis.

Figure it out yourself. Buy War Bonds. The more planes we buy the less life we lose; the sooner the Nazis will cry "enough!" U. S. Treasury Department and two daughters survive: Roy Huffham, Roseburg; E. H. Huffham, Portland; Paul Huffham, Hanford, Wash.; Mrs. J. R. Maxwell, Prineville, Ore., and Mrs. Harold Buroker, Bonners Ferry, Ida.

The funeral service will be held Monday at 2:30 p. m. at the Roseburg Undertaking company chapel and interment will take place at the Oakland cemetery.

Astoria Resident Dies At Veterans Facility

Odolph Johnson, 54, resident of Astoria, died at the Veterans hospital here Friday. Born January 20, 1889 at Gjerde, Norway, he came to this country about 36 years ago. He was a veteran from Oregon of World War I and was never married. Military services will be held at the veterans cemetery Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Arrangements are in charge of the Douglas Funeral home.

CHICKEN HASH

NEW YORK — Mrs. Mina Wittman appeared in Long Island city court charged with keeping six chickens in her backyard without a health department permit.

"I suppose the eggs come in handy for the children," said Magistrate Henry A. Soffer.

"Eggs!" interjected a patrolman, "Mrs. Wittman has six roosters."

"That's different," said the judge, "five dollars fine, but sentence is suspended provided you eat them within two weeks."

Minister Tries Fisherman's Job

TACOMA — Rev. Harold L. Booch, 34, minister of one of Tacoma's largest churches, spent his six weeks' vacation this year working as a fisherman, Longshoreman and day laborer in Alaska.

"I deal a lot with unrealities in my job; I wanted to try out some realism," he chuckled today. "I got it."

He also got callouses on his hands, money in his pockets earned by the sweat of his brow, and a colorful vocabulary which, he claims, he could never have picked up in his pulpit in the First Congregational church.

He worked his way north and back as a cargo shifter on a freighter, and in Sitka, where he had arranged for a job as a fisherman with a cannery before his departure. From here, he worked with Indians on a purse seiner and as an ice shifter in a cold storage plant.

"I never missed a day's work, even Sundays," said Booch. "There was such a shortage of laborers."

Best job was cargo shifting "because the men were such an interesting group—from all over the world."

Companion on his adventure was a 34 year old high school music teacher, Frank Anarde. Booch plans to repeat his expedition next year.
