Armstrong Decisions Silva in 10-Rounder

SPOKANE, Aug. 16—(AP)— Henry Armstrong outpointed Joey Silva in a 10-round decision here Saturday night.

Armstrong, winning his 23rd victory in a comeback before he meets Ray Robinson August 27, had trouble combatting his own style of battling. Frequently he tried to straighten Silva up, but the little Mayten traded numb the little Mexican traded punch for punch, but with less effect.

In the sixth round, however, Armstrong landed solid face and body punches and Silva's fate was scaled, though he fought back gamely. The Associated back gamely. The Associated Press score card gave Armstrong seven rounds with three even.
