MRS. KLETZER NAMED CHAIRMAN OF PUBLIC WELFARE COMMITTEE

Appointment of Mrs. William Kletzer, Portland, immediate past president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, as chairman of public welfare for the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs is being announced this week by Mrs. George Moorhead, Salem, the federation's new president.

Mrs. Kletzer, who completed her three-year presidency of the national congress in May, is widely known among P. T. A. and welfare workers around the state. She served under three governors as a member of the Oregon child welfare commission; is serving now on Governor Earl Snell's interim committee, authorized by the 1943 legislature to study conditions at the state training schools for boys and girls. She is chairman of the child labor committee for the Boys' and Girls' council of Portland and is a member of the state advisory committee on child care, health and welfare.

She is a former president of the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers and a member of the Portland Sorosis club.

Under Mrs. Kletzer's leadership the emphasis of the state federation's public welfare department will be placed, Mrs. Moorhead says, on the wartime needs of young people and children. There will be special stress on ways in which the state's women can help to combat the mounting rate of juvenile delinquency.

PORTLAND VISITOR IS COMPLIMENTED AT PARTY TUESDAY NIGHT

Adeline Fields entertained at a very charming informal party at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. George E. Honck, on South Stephens street Tuesday evening in compliment to her houseguest, Bernice Byers, dental technician from Portland.

Visiting was enjoyed and later the hostess served lovely refreshments to the guest of honor and Miss Helen Casey, Mrs. C. E. Cramer, Mrs. Robert Wickland, of Honolulu, and Mrs. John Young.

POTLUCK SUPPER CLUB ENJOYS WEEKEND STAY AT ALLEN SUMMER PLACE

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Lee entertained their six-thirty o'clock potluck supper club Saturday evening at the Dr. Clair K. Allen summer place on the North Umpqua river and the group remained at the camp over the weekend.

Those enjoying the occasion included: Mr. and Mrs. Ward Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Wimberly, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Patterson and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Lee.

MRS. W. E. FUTRELLE ENTERTAINS AT LOVELY BRIDGE-LUNCHEON FRIDAY

One of the most charming parties of the season was the one o'clock bridge-luncheon given Friday by Mrs. W. E. Futrelle at her attractive home at the Facility post in compliment to Mrs. E. F. Tandy, who has returned here to make her home, following a year in Washington, D. C., to welcome Mrs. William F. Amiot to Roseburg, and in farewell to Mrs. W. B. Hawkins and Mrs. Mark L. Underwood.

Red roses formed a very beautiful decorative motif for the occasion. Covers were placed for: Mrs. Tandy, Mrs. Amiot, Mrs. Hawkins and Mrs. Underwood, guests of honor, Mrs. C. W. Wharton and her daughter, Mrs. Robert Wickland, of Honolulu; Mrs. James E. Sawyers, Mrs. Edgar Lewis, Mrs. Arthur W. Baum, Mrs. W. F. Chapman, Mrs. John A. Macdonald, Mrs. Velle Bronndyke, Mrs. H. T. Arundel and son, Richard.

Mrs. Jorey was born August 13, 1853, in England and came to South Dakota in 1885 and to Oregon in 1912. Her husband, the late Peter Jorey, died here in 1918. They made their home in Edenburg and nine years ago moved to their present home at 942 Military street. She has two daughters, Miss Jennie Jorey, of this city, and Mrs. E. H. Price, of San Mateo, California.

MR. AND MRS. KERR ENTERTAIN GROUP OF FRIENDS ON ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. John Kerr invited a group of friends to their new home on East Lane street to celebrate their twenty-first wedding anniversary. (The Kerrs recently moved from Brockway to Roseburg.)

The evening was spent in playing pinochle and visiting with high score prizes going to Mrs. Bill Weir and Fred Miller and consolation prizes to Margaret Adair and Bill Weir.

A lovely lace table cloth was presented by the group to Mr. and Mrs. Kerr in honor of the occasion. Later in the evening lovely refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Kerr to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Weir and son, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Bross, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burks and son, David; Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Nichols and daughter, Nancy; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller and daughter, Darleen, and niece, Joy Simonsen, of North Bend; Mrs. L. R. Nichols and Mrs. Margaret Adair.

THOMAS STOVALL IS HONORED AT FAREWELL PARTY AT STARK HOME

Mr. and Mrs. William Stark entertained a few friends Monday evening at their home on North Jackson street, in honor of their son-in-law, Thomas Stovall, who left Tuesday evening for Portland to enter the United States navy. Cards and visiting were enjoyed throughout the evening.

Later lovely refreshments were served to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stovall, guests of honor; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Palm and son, Jackie; Mr. and Mrs. Paul McGowan and daughter, Joyce, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. William Stark.

BAILEY-RUSSELL GARDEN PARTY IS CHARMING AFFAIR OF WEDNESDAY

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bailey and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Russell entertained at a very charming garden party Wednesday evening in the beautiful out-door living room at the Bailey home.

Tables were arranged in the garden and were attractively appointed and centered with beautiful bouquets of colorful zinnias. Garden furniture added to the attractiveness of the garden and the out-door fireplace was enjoyed during the pleasant evening hours of visiting and singing.

Members of the Rebekah and Odd Fellow lodges and a large number of friends were invited to call during the evening hours. Mrs. Bailey is vice-president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon and Mr. Russell is deputy grand master of the I. O. O. F. grand lodge of Oregon.

More than seventy-five guests called and were received by Mr. and Mrs. Bailey and Mr. and Mrs. Russell.

Mrs. Frederick J. Herman had charge of the guest book and Mrs. Arthur Hudnell and Miss Vivian Logsdon had charge of cutting the cakes and serving ice cream. Punch was served by Mrs. Minnie Patton, Mrs. Craig Marsters, Mrs. Hilda Beauchamp and Mrs. Warren I. Wands.

A group of Canyonville Rebekahs and Odd Fellows were among the guests enjoying the delightful affair.

ENJOYABLE AFFAIR HELD AT LOU KNIGHT HOME AT CANYONVILLE

A very practical and pleasant surprise was given Mrs. Lou Knight Sunday forenoon when a group of men in the neighborhood gathered at the Knight farm with threshing machine, trucks, tractors, teams and wagons to harvest the season's grain crop.

It was a gesture of appreciation of Mrs. Knight's own "good neighbor" policies coupled with the fact that two of her sons are serving in the army. George, a sergeant with the air force and Tom a member of coast artillery anti-aircraft unit now on duty in California.

At noon the hostess assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Darrell Carter, and a number of neighbor ladies served a real old-time harvest day dinner to the following guests: Jack Gaulke, Sr., Howard Green, Jess Smith, Ralph Weaver, James Carter, John Racher, Guy McGee, Ray White, Frank Fate, Jack Gaulke, Jr., J. POET'S CORNER

A WARTIME ROMANCE

By ALDEN HARNESSE

Where sounds of human voices Had never broke before The all-prevailing silence That brooded evermore In mountain-sheltered valley Which reached from shore to shore.

Within a rock-ribbed cavern In prehistoric style Two victims of a shipwreck Dwelt on an unknown isle. Where softest rain and sunshine Beside the long lagoon Brought forth a million blossoms And ripened rich fruit soon. With joy and health and gladness Their young lives were in tune— From flint, which she discovered Down in a deep defile, He fashioned heads for arrows Upon that fertile isle. War broke the peace, pervading That haven in the seas. While bravest Yankee soldiers Advanced through jungle trees And fought the hordes, — comprising Twelve thousand Japanese. They searched for yellow snipers And slew them mile on mile, Till Nippon's beaten army Flew from that tropic isle. As sweet as matchless music One hears on nights in June, When over moonlit islands The winds on mountains croon Through green and fragrant forests Creation's mystic rune; As radiant with beauty As dawn's resplendent smile, Became the love that found them Upon that lonely isle.
