Cole Brothers Circus Scheduled in West Roseburg September 9th

The circus is coming!

The big show—Cole Brothers, with literally hundreds of spanglers, with a variety of animals, and a variety of new pageant, and dozens upon dozens of circus stars, headed as they are by the famous Hanneford family of bareback riding marvels with "Poodles" Hanneford, the greatest of all riding comedians, is scheduled to exhibit September 9, at Bellows field in West Roseburg.

Performances will be given at 3 and 8 p. m. with the main gates opening at 2 and 7 p. m. Nearly 1,000 people are listed under the big show's banners this year, and among them 350 men and women arena stars and performers, most of whom will be new to circus patrons.

A big double-menagerie filled with wild jungle beasts from all parts of the world, together with numerous other 1943 circus thrills, mark this season's visit of the big show.

The performances open with a gorgeous super-spectacle entitled, "The Conquest of Coronado," in which hundreds of people and animals take part and the entire production is highlighted by the silvery of Florence Tennyson, the noted opera star and a huge assemblage of vocalists.
