Bribery Charges Hit Arms Firm, Ex-Army Officer

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26—(AP)—The justice department announced today that a federal grand jury here has indicted a Texas ammunition manufacturing company, its president and a court-martialed army officer on charges of bribery and conspiracy to defraud the government.

One indictment charges the American Manufacturing company of Texas, President William J. Gouley, of Fort Worth, and August J. Cayonette, a former lieutenant colonel, with "unlawfully, wilfully and knowingly" conspiring to defraud the government in the purchase of machine tools.

A second indictment charges that between Aug. 15, 1941, and March 5, 1942, Gouley gave the officer six checks totaling $3,200 "with the intent to influence the decision and action of Cayonette in his official capacity as a war department official assigned to recommend the amount and kind of tools for government purchase."

The announcement said Cayonette was convicted April 15, 1943, by a general court martial at Fort Myer, Va., on charges of "conduct of a nature to bring discredit to the military service and of conduct unbecoming an officer and gentleman."

Cayonette was dismissed from the service, the announcement said, fined $5,000 and sentenced to two years of hard labor.

Pre-Registration For State Rally Of C. E. Arranged

Pre-registration for the state Christian Endeavor convention, scheduled to be held in Roseburg, October 14-17, will get under way in Douglas county next Sunday, announces Miss Helen Wain, local registrar, following a conference of committee personnel with Howard C. Cole, northwest field secretary of Christian Endeavor, held at Oakland on Thursday night.

Cole reports that registration in other county unions of the state has already reached sizable proportions, indicating that at attendance may equal or exceed that of last year's Eugene convention, despite increased travel difficulties faced at the present time.

The convention program is rapidly approaching a finished state, says Cole, and will be released for publication soon.
