McClintock and Mrs. Guy Gordon.

Elephants Starred in Cole Circus

Clowns and elephants are mainstays of the circus and for generations they have played a most important part in the advancement of that favorite amusement. For one thing, circus people love elephants. Probably that is one reason why there are three great herds of the ponderous beasts with the huge Cole Brothers circus, coming to Roseburg, September 9, at Bellows field, for afternoon and night performances at 3 and 8.

FLOYD STEPHENS IS HONORED AT SURPRISE PARTY ON BIRTHDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stephens were dinner guests of Mrs. A. L. Stephens and daughter, Miss Gerry, Thursday evening at their home on Winchester street, after which a group of friends called to surprise Mr. Stephens on his birthday anniversary.
