BY LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

Marry in Portland, August 15

St. Michaels and All Angels Episcopal church in Portland was the scene Sunday, August 15, of the wedding of Miss Clara Margaret Johnson, attractive daughter of Mrs. H. Blair Johnson, of Portland, and J. Clifford Hess, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hess, of Roseburg. Rev. C. F. Neville performed the ceremony at two o'clock in the afternoon in the presence of relatives and close friends of the couple. A beautiful setting was arranged with yellow and white gladioli.

Mrs. W. D. Stone played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin's Wedding march and at the close of the ceremony played Mendelssohn's Wedding recessional. She accompanied Miss Dora Dillow, of Portland, who sang, "Still as The Night," and who softly sang a hymn as the bridal party advanced to the altar.

The bride came down the aisle in a gown of white silk crepe in princess style with a lace yoke and sleeves. Her fingertip-length veil fell from a Juliet cap of lace and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Frank Mack, of Sumner, Wash., was matron of honor and was charming in a frock of pastel blue marquisette. She carried a shower bouquet of yellow roses. Mr. Mack acted as best man to the bridegroom. Richard Pizzo and Arthur Wahlers, both of Portland, were ushers.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride's cousin, Mrs. A. W. Wahler, of Portland, and Miss Betty Johnson, of San Francisco, a sister of the bride. Other out-of-town guests present included two cousins of the bride: Lt. George A. Davies, of Camp Haan, Calif., and Corporal James Davies, of Camp Santa Anita, Calif.

For traveling the bride chose a suit of natural-colored linen with black accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias.

Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Hess left for points on the coast and are now at home in Garden Valley.

The bride attended high school in Idaho and Reed college and business college in Portland. At the time of her marriage, she was employed at the Equitable Savings and Loan association in Portland. The bridegroom is very well known in Douglas county, where he has many friends. He was graduated from Roseburg high school and is engaged in farming in the Garden Valley community.

A lovely gift was presented to Mrs. Hess and plans were discussed for a rummage sale to be sponsored by the Guild in the near future.

Those enjoying the party honoring Mrs. Moore included: Mrs. Will H. Gerretsen, Mrs. J. C. Hume, Mrs. M. E. Ritter, Sr., Mrs. Loney and Mrs. Vogel, of Sutherlin, Mrs. Etta Davies, Mrs. Perry Smith, Mrs. J. M. Judd, Mrs. E. A. Post, Mrs. John A. Macdonald, Mrs. M. F. Middelburg, Mrs. Robert Middelburg, Mrs. H. H. Turner, Mrs. Ray Parslow and Mrs. J. C. McAllister.

MISS HELEN CASEY ENTERTAINS AT CHARMING BRIDGE LUNCHEON WED.

Miss Helen Casey entertained at a very charming one o'clock bridge luncheon at the Hotel Umpqua Wednesday in compliment to Adeline Fields, who has arrived here from Portland to make her home with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. George E. Houck, on South Stephens street.

Covers were placed for the two guests of honor and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wharton, Mr. and Mrs. George Wharton and daughter, JoAnn; Mr. and Mrs. John Young, Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Pargeter, Miss Bess, Miss Jane and Tom Wharton, Mrs. H. H. Stapleton, Miss Alice Ueland, Mrs. Edith Gilmour, Mrs. Charles S. Collins and daughter, Michele, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wharton.

Visiting was enjoyed during the pleasant evening hours.

Corporal Wharton left Saturday for camp, following a week's leave here visiting his parents. Mrs. Wickland expects to leave in the near future for her home in Honolulu, following a year in the states. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wharton of this city.

BRIDGE CLUB HAS ENJOYABLE LUNCHEON MEETING ON TUESDAY

The Tuesday bridge club held a delightful no-hostess noon luncheon at the attractive summer place of Mrs. Arthur W. Baum on the North Umpqua this week.

Covers were placed for: Mrs. C. L. Schwering, dean of women at University of Oregon (who spent the weekend here as the guest of Mrs. H. H. Stapleton), and Mrs. L. W. Josse, guests, and Mrs. W. F. Chapman, Miss Helen Casey, Mrs. H. H. Stapleton, Mrs. Walter Fisher, Mrs. Harris Ellsworth, Mrs. John H. Robinson, Mrs. A. A. Wilder and Mrs. Arthur W. Baum.

Contract bridge was in play during the afternoon with Mrs. Ellsworth and Mrs. Fisher winning the high scores.

CHARMING DINNER PARTY ENJOYED AT WILDER HOME FRIDAY EVENING

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Wilder entertained at a very charming dinner party at their lovely home on Chadwick street Friday evening in compliment to Mrs. Robert Wickland, of Honolulu, and Mrs. C. L. Schwering, dean of women at the University of Oregon, Eugene.

Marry at Presbyterian Church

Miss Patricia Quine, lovely daughter of Mrs. E. S. Woodford of this city, and Second Lieutenant Richard Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Young, of Melrose, were married at an impressive ceremony Saturday evening, August 14, at the First Presbyterian church in Roseburg. Dr. Morris H. Roach performed the ceremony by candlelight at eight o'clock in the presence of close friends and relatives of the couple.

Large baskets of gladioli formed an attractive arch for the wedding. Tall white tapers in large candelabras were used to complete the decorations.

Miss Joyce Quine, sister of the bride, lighted the candles preceding the ceremony. She was attractive in a suit of dusty-rose color with luggage tan accessories. She wore a white gladioli blossom in her hair.

Mrs. R. D. Coen, aunt of the bride, very charmingly sang, "Confessions" by Arthur A. Penn, accompanied by Mrs. Homer Grow at the pipe organ. Mrs. Coen was attractive in silk print model with black accessories. Mrs. Grow played softly on the organ throughout the ceremony.

The bride was very beautiful in an ice-blue two-piece ensemble fashioned with lace open-work on the jacket, which buttoned down the front with tiny crystal buttons. She wore navy accessories and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Ray Puckett, nee Dorothy White, was matron of honor and was lovely in a two piece dress of soft pink. Her corsage was of gardenias. Bert Young acted as best man to his brother.

The bride's mother wore a powder-blue colored suit with black accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a blue and white ensemble. Both mothers wore corsages fashioned from gladioli buds.

A charming reception followed the wedding at the home of the bride's paternal grandmother.

DEAN SCHWERING IS COMPLEMENTED AT CHARMING DINNER

Mrs. J. C. Hume entertained at a very charming six-thirty o'clock dinner party at her attractive home on Blakely street Tuesday evening in compliment to Mrs. C. L. Schwering, dean of women at the University of Oregon, Eugene.

Fuschias formed a very lovely motif for the table. Covers were placed for Dean Schwering, guest of honor, Mrs. H. H. Stapleton, Miss Helen Casey, Mrs. Fred Hamilton, Mrs. C. E. Wimberly, Mrs. L. E. McClintock, Mrs. Perry Smith, Mrs. Harris Ellsworth and the hostess, Mrs. Hume.

Contract bridge was enjoyed during the pleasant evening hours with Dean Schwering receiving the guest prize and Mrs. Wimberly the high score prize.

MR. AND MRS. FRENCH ENTERTAIN AT DELIGHTFUL DINNER THURSDAY EVE

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. French entertained at a very lovely seven o'clock fried chicken dinner at their home in Sutherlin Thursday night to honor their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Chapman, of Yoncalla, on their sixth wedding anniversary.

Covers were placed at a prettily appointed table for the guests of honor and Mrs. Malinda Oelckrich and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Saunders and son, Melvin, of Roseburg; Mrs. Hazel Archambault and Mrs. Miranda French, of Sutherlin, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. French.

Gifts were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Chapman and the evening hours were pleasantly spent in visiting.

Mrs. George K. Quine. The lace-covered serving table was centered with a beautiful three-tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and marine bridegroom. The cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom. Tall white tapers and bouquets of pale-pink sweetpeas and baby's breath completed the attractive setting.

Lovely refreshments were served. Mrs. George K. Quine poured the coffee and Miss Adeline Stewart presided at the punch bowl and cut the ices. Mrs. Roy Catching and Mrs. R. D. Coen, aunts of the bride; Mrs. Eugene McElroy, and Mrs. Wallace Amason, cousins of the bride, and Mrs. Fred Dent assisted in serving.

Out-of-town guests present were Miss Doris Jean Dunn, Miss Ruby West and Mrs. Bud Cooley, all of Salem.

For traveling the bride chose a navy blue ensemble with a top coat of steel blue fashioned with a silver fox collar. She wore matching accessories and her corsage was an orchid. Following a honeymoon to coast points, Lt. and Mrs. Young left for San Diego, Monday of this week, where the former will report for duty, and they will make their home.

Both the bride and bridegroom are members of prominent Douglas county residents and both were graduated from Roseburg high school with excellent records. The bride is a granddaughter of the late Judge George K. Quine and a great-granddaughter of the late G. W. Riddle, former commander of the state soldiers home.

She has been employed at the Vocational Educational department in Salem in the Library building. Following his being graduated from Roseburg high school, Lt. Young enlisted in the U. S. marines and was just recently advanced in rank in the flying forces to the position of second lieutenant at Corpus Christi, Tex.

Contract bridge was enjoyed during the afternoon with Miss Casey and Mrs. McClintock winning the high scores.

ARTHUR K. KNAUSS AND F. LOUISE BALDWIN MARRY IN PORTLAND

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur K. Knauss at 6716 S. E. 18th avenue, Portland, was the scene of a prettily appointed wedding Thursday evening, August 12, at 8 o'clock when their son, Arthur K. Knauss and Miss F. Louise Baldwin of 3605 S. E. Woodstock Boulevard were united in wedlock. Rev. Fred Shorter of Seattle read the impressive double ring ceremony in the presence of 40 guests.

The vows were exchanged in front of the fireplace, on both sides of which were tall standards of flowers. The mantel was also a bower of pink and white blossoms. Preceding the ceremony John Ryan of Los Angeles, now a student at North Pacific College of Oregon, sang, "At Dawning," and "I Love You Truly" to the piano accompaniment of Mrs. Charles Heinline of Cheyenne, Wyo., who came to Portland for the wedding. Mrs. Heinline also played the wedding music which followed.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Mortimer Baldwin of Seattle, wore a gown of all white and a Juliet cap. She carried white orchids and sprays of white stephanotis. The bridesmaid, Miss Marla Knauss, a sister of the groom, was attired in pale blue and carried transvaal daisies in all colors with a center of Queen Mary rose. Fred Shorter Jr., was the groom's best man.

At the reception which followed Mrs. Fred Moore presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. A. Plazza served. Mr. and Mrs. Knauss left on a weekend trip to Seaside and on their return will make their home in Portland. The bride, majoring in social science at Reed college, is the daughter of Mrs. Asa Baldwin of Cleveland, Ohio. The groom is being sent to North Pacific college of Oregon by the navy.

The Knauss family formerly made their home in Laurelwood.

REBEKAH LODGE HAS INTERESTING PROGRAM AND MEETING TUESDAY

Roseburg Rebekah lodge No. 41 held a very interesting meeting Tuesday night at the I. O. O. F. hall with Elma M. Stephens, noble grand, presiding. Reba Hartley, Bertha Bayless and Effie Stubblefield were appointed on the courtesy committee.

The lodge will sponsor the drive for the sale of defense bonds and stamps for September and J. E. Dent, chairman of the drive, gave a talk on the subject, urging every member to make special effort to make the drive successful.

Special honor was given to Ruby Bloom, on her thirty-third wedding anniversary; to Alta Bartrum on her second wedding anniversary, and to Emma Taylor and Carlbel Houck on their birthdays.

Vivian Logsdon had charge of the delightful program, which included group singing led by Mary Myers, accompanied by Ina Farnsworth. Mrs. J. B. Bailey gave a talk on what changes she would like to see in the lodge, after which Margaret Saunders sang, "Put on Your Old Gray Bonnet" and "In My Merry Oldsmobile," accompanied by Miss Farnsworth. Melodies of the gay nineties were played by Danise Beach.

It was announced the degree staff will practice at 8 o'clock next Wednesday evening at the I. O. O. F. hall.
