"Masked Marvel" Of Movies Victim Of Mystery Killing

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 13.—(AP)—Fatally stabbed apparently while returning trunk-clad from a swim at the beach, David Gaspar G. Bacon, 29, film acting son of the socially prominent former lieutenant governor of Massachusetts, today offered police a mystery more baffling than any he played in the title role of the "Masked Marvel" movie series.

Who knifed him, why, how and when—all were described by Capt. Thad Brown of the police homicide detail as circumstances thus far unknown.

Bacon's little English-made automobile bounced over a curb late yesterday and bumped to a stop in a beanfield in suburban Venice. The actor, clad in blue denim shorts, stepped out, collapsed and shortly died. Blood streamed from a stab wound in his back.

Mrs. B. Watterson said she had passed the car before it began weaving and saw a black-haired man sitting beside the driver. A little later, Miss Watterson Smith said, she saw no sign of the other man.

Capt. Brown said a service station attendant a half mile west of the beanfield reported that when the car passed his place it carried a man and a woman, besides the driver.

The actor's wife, Crota Keller, Austrian singer, said he left their Hollywood home while she was taking a nap.

Mrs. Bacon, who is expecting a baby, was placed under a physician's care, suffering from shock after learning of her husband's death.

War Conditions Blamed For Aged Man's Suicide
KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Sept. 13.—(AP)—John Dunnington, about 60, died yesterday of a gunshot wound at a local hospital, shortly after he was found lying in the wreckage of a well-used car with an automatic machine on the floor beside him. Dr. Clarence H. Allen, surgeon, said accidental shooting Dunnington had been depressed by war news and war conditions.

World Peace, New Taxes, Draft Top Congress Agenda

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—(AP)—Congress returns from a summer recess tomorrow to work for the war and prepare for the peace.

Intentional and domestic problems of historic import confront the refreshed lawmakers as they resume their legislative chores in an atmosphere brightened by the surrender of Italy.

Immediate congressional attention was focused upon the direct problems of war and their impact on the domestic economy—problems of raising revenue, of rationing, of mustering manpower for production and for the military forces.

Ahead are questions of long range legislation—issues and controversies which may shape American foreign policy in the postwar world and blueprint the pattern for economic life at home for years to come.

And from the decisions and the controversies of congress in coming months may come the issues of the 1944 presidential campaign.

Men and money appear likely to precipitate the first two debates, but perhaps before either issue—the father draft and taxes—is settled, congress will turn its attention to international policy. Major Agenda Outlined.

Pending before the house is a simply worded resolution, sponsored by Rep. Fulbright (D., Ark.) which would put the house and senate on record in favor of world cooperation to preserve peace. Leaders are reported to have agreed to make it the first order of business.

The move to draft fathers after October 1 vied for primary interest.

With less than three weeks in which to act, plans have been made for a swift test on Senator Wheeler's bill to ban induction of fathers at least until January 1 and thus give congress time to inquire into the whole manpower problem.

Meanwhile, the house ways and means committee has begun the spadework on a new tax bill. The administration has asked for $12,000,000,000 in new revenue. But, with the dwindling number of fresh revenue springs and with the treasury still to present its recommendations, doubt is developing on capitol hill that a program acceptable to both house and senate can be worked out this year.

A wide range of suggestions for finding at least part of the added billions have been advanced, among them a retail sales tax, a manufacturers sales tax, compulsory savings, a national lottery, increased excess profits levies, and added assessments on individual earnings.
