Hospital Funds In Demands Listed At V. F. W. Meet

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—(AP)—Carl J. Schoeninger, 48, of Detroit Thursday was unanimously elected commander-in-chief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He succeeds Robert T. Merrill of Havre, Mont.

Mrs. Amelia C. Cane of Pittsburgh, Pa., was elected national president of the ladies' auxiliary of the V. F. W. to succeed Mrs. Marie Dewitt of St. Paul.

In a resolution adopted at the annual convention the delegates declared that post war cooperation between nations should not involve any loss of sovereignty by the United States.

The veterans also adopted a resolution calling on congress to pass a joint resolution repudiating a projected plan to officially designate a "four freedoms" flag to be flown with the Stars and Stripes.

Congress also was asked by the veterans to appropriate $500,000,000 to improve facilities and hospitals used by wounded veterans.

The resolutions were adopted after delegates had voted overwhelmingly to table a resolution dealing with admittance of service women to the V. F. W.

Ex-Convict Breaks Faith, Goes Back To Meet Scorn

LANSING Kas., Sept. 30.—(AP)—Fellow convicts at Kansas state prison pitied the plight of Charles M. Fargo, who lost both legs and was partially paralyzed after being shot in an attempt to rob a bank at Emporia.

They built him a trailer-shop and made up a jackpot of $336 to set him up in a candy and soft drink business.

He was paroled in April, 1942 and set forth to enter to workers at a Wichita aircraft plant.

"I'm going straight," he told prison officials then. "I can't let these fellows down."

Fargo was back in prison today as a parole violator. Wichita
