American Legion Auxiliary Activities

(By MRS. CLAUDE BAKER)

Tuesday, Oct. 5, at eight o'clock in the American Legion rooms the auxiliary will hold its first fall meeting. Mrs. L. A. Rhoden, president, urges all members to be present. They will discuss plans for the district convention which will be held in Roseburg on Oct. 16.

Mrs. Rhoden has announced her officers for the year. Elective officers who will assist Mrs. Rhoden this year are: Mrs. R. G. Baker, first vice president and membership chairman, Mrs. Carl Roslund, secretary and Mrs. Arthur Midland, treasurer. Mrs. J. M. Judd, Mrs. Rhoden and Mrs. Roslund comprise the executive committee.

As membership chairman Mrs. R. G. Baker is requesting members to bring their dues in early. It is a difficult task to canvass a large group for dues and more especially since gas and the rationing. Mrs. Baker will announce further plans later. Those wishing to pay dues may leave them at Mrs. Roy Young's or with Mrs. Parkinson.

Mrs. Judd has graciously offered her home for junctions of the district convention Oct. 16. Watch for plans.

Mrs. Victor Micelli, national defense chairman has compiled the hours which the American Legion auxiliary members donated to the war effort in 1943. A total of 13,181 hours or breaking it into eight hours working days a total of 1647 days have been given to Roseburg's "fighting front". Becoming prepared to fight sickness, healing the injured doing knitting for the boys over there. The work includes that of the Red Cross. Three first aid instructors have given over a year of time! Classes in first aid are opening again for fall and if you are interested call at the office of G. W. Young and son where that ex-district president Mrs. Roy Young will register you. Or go to Parkinsons where that radio artist Tom Parkinson will be glad to take your name. Didn't she do a slick job telling you about the classes on her own time the other day? Or that loyal Legionnaire Alvin Knudsen, also an instructor, will be glad to register you at his store.

Your dollars still go a long way...

AT PENNEY'S!

IT'S patriotic and wise, nowadays, to save money every way you can—to save and put your savings into War Bonds! Save by making everything last longer. Save by not buying useless and trivial things. Save, too, by shopping regularly at your J. C. Penney store for things you really need!

The less you buy the more you need Penney values.

Penney's still offers, as it always has, the highest quality merchandise that can be had, at the lowest possible prices.

You don't pay for costly extras, for frills, or "front" at Penney's.

And there's another thing about Penney's that's a big help in this wartime year.

The folks who work at your Penney store are people who know this town and its wants and needs. Their chief concern is to help stretch your budget and to see that you get merchandise that will serve you and suit you well.

It pays big dividends to shop at Penney's.
