Hunting Test Set to Determine Dog's Owner

DETROIT, Oct. 11.—(AP)—
"Brownie" or "Teddy" tas the case may be, a springer spaniel for which two men are fighting in circuit court, will go on a hunting expedition to help Judge William Friedman decide the issue of ownership.

Fred Kern, who insists the dog is "Brownie," the property at one of his seven sons who is now in the army, told the court the dog was only a pet.

Earl Bloomingberg, the other claimant, says the dog is his claimant, says the dog is his "Teddy" and was equally insistent the spaniel was a bangup hunt-ing animal.

The dog failed flatly to cooperate by responding with equal enthusiasm when called by both
