MENT that Germany's defeat has been brought nearer. Even Churchill is worried a little by this reaction and he tells the British they'd be "absolute fools" to count on an altogether unexpected collapse of the enemy and adds that the "worst fighting of the war so far as the British people are concerned lies ahead."

That goes double for us, for when Hitler is licked OUR REAL WAR, which is the Pacific war, will BEGIN.

CHURCHILL was pinch-hitting for Eden, who is apparently out of London. The "whereabouts" of our Secretary Hull is "not announced," Washington dispatches tell us.

The presumption is that Eden and Hull are on their way to Moscow for the much discussed diplomatic conference of the foreign ministers of Britain, the United States and Russia.)

WITH this conference (which is expected to be followed by another between Churchill, FDR and Stalin) apparently in mind, Pravda, official Russian newspaper, tells the world that the soviets DO NOT INTEND to discuss frontiers or the status of the Baltic states.

Pravda adds: "It should be known to everyone that the borders of the Soviet Union could no more serve as a subject of discussion than, for instance, the borders of the United States or the status of California."

GOOD for Russia! This is a time for PLAIN SPEAKING about ALL the problems that will be certain to come up as soon as Germany is beaten, and Stalin (through his official newspaper organ) is speaking plainly, as becomes the realistic sort of person he is supposed to be.

This writer thinks it would be far better if OUR leaders spoke plainly to us about these things instead of hush-hushing all these problems that will concern us so vitally in the not-too-distant future.

ONLY in that way can an intelligent public opinion that will back up and sustain our leaders when the time comes for them to TALK FOR AMERICA in the councils of the world be built up.

WILSON'S fatal mistake was that he was TOO SECRE- TIVE, and failed to take the American people into his confidence, so that when he sprung his league of nations idea on the world at Versailles he HAD NO BACKING AT HOME.

It can be no less than tragic if we make that mistake again.

THE important news of the world is still political rather than military. Clark is fighting along the flooded Volturno. Our artillery and planes are pounding at German gun positions beyond the river, and the Germans are reported to be bringing up strong new artillery units. Montgomery is meeting stiff resistance on the Adriatic side of the Italian peninsula.

BERLIN tells of a new Russian POWER DRIVE north of Kiev. Moscow says the red army is "many miles" west of the Dnieper and is enlarging its bridgeheads. Russian forces are edging closer to Vitebsk. The Russians say the Germans are beginning to PUT THE TORCH to Kiev.

POSTWAR PLANNING URGED

EDITORIAL

By Charles V. Stanton

THE state postwar commission in the latest move toward planning construction and development activities following the war is asking all Oregon mayors to begin studies immediately.

Pointing out that a lot of small projects would provide as much employment as a single one, such as construction of a dam, the commission asks the mayors—

"To inspect the physical plant of your community, ascertain whether the present water system is adequate, needs expansion or new pipelines; whether repairs are required for streets or sidewalks; whether catch basins are sufficient; how about the sewer system? whether the fire equipment is suitably housed; whether public buildings require a new roof, painting or additions; how about parks, playgrounds and equipment for them? You will be surprised at the number of projects that will suggest themselves and they are all important and of permanent value.

"Do not postpone making a survey of your community," the commission urged. "Do it now and, having selected your projects, prepare a financial reserve to meet the estimated cost. It may be necessary to activate your plans next year."

The commission sounds most optimistic in citing the possibility that next year will see a need for such type of activity. We only hope the statement is a prediction, but we doubt that the termination of the war will be reached at such an early date.

However, the commission, in our opinion, is absolutely correct in its declaration that no time should be lost in listing public projects and arranging necessary financing. We also believe that the planning should not be based merely on a catalogue of things that can be done. These should, instead, be provided a carefully studied program including all factors and agencies in a broad, overall pattern of community development to meet the needs of expanded population and industrial and agricultural activity.

The county, municipalities and school districts should act in concert and cooperation, together with the business, industrial and agricultural industries. Efforts and money should be pooled to provide the greatest benefit to the county as a whole.

Financing is the major problem. We will have no difficulty in finding projects. Roseburg's streets, neglected because of material and labor shortages, will provide ample work projects for many months. Douglas county has a real program ahead in rebuilding its road system to carry the heavy logging traffic of the future.

We will need a large expansion of our school system to meet the demands of a growing population. Sewage, drainage and sanitary facilities need overhauling. Roseburg's sewage disposal plant is already nearing capacity and a new unit will be needed. Other municipalities will probably be required to arrange sanitary sewage disposal, as stream pollution probably will not be tolerated for any appreciable period after the war. Thus there is an opportunity for an ample list of projects. But all of these improvements will cost money.

Our county, cities and school districts are in better financial condition than at any time in recent history. More money is in circulation than for a great many years. While federal taxes are high and will undoubtedly continue to stay at unprecedented levels, we should not let that factor interfere with conditions at home. New budgets next year should include ample reserves. It might be well to consider special tax levies to be earmarked for specific projects. It is far better to raise money in advance, when money is plentiful, than to pay out interest equivalent to the principal on a bond issue.

Legion, Auxiliary Urged To Attend Conference

All active and past active members of Umpqua post of the American Legion and the post auxiliary are urged by Erwin Short, post commander, and Mrs. L. A. Rhoden, auxiliary president, to be in attendance at the district conference to be held Sunday night.

State officers will conduct the conference and delegates are expected from all posts and auxiliary units in Douglas and Josephine counties.

A dinner will be held at 6:30 p. m. in the I. O. O. F. hall. Dinner is free and no reservations are necessary. The conference will start at 8 o'clock and will explain in detail the "America Alert" program adopted at the national convention.

DIAL LOG

By SUSAN

We just started to write this when we heard a loud blast of excitement coming out of the control booth and it didn't take us more than that to tell us it was 1:30 on Friday and time for Milton Berle on Full Speed Ahead. So we moved in to join the crowd. If you've been missing this swell half-hour show, especially on Fridays—well, just don't let it happen again, because we think it's tops. Now for Sunday—remember that Voice of Prophecy has moved to 8:30 in the morning and Old Fashioned Revival Hour is now heard at 4 in the afternoon. The Shadow at 2:30 as usual, followed by Foreign Assignment—but before long your old favorite "First Nighter" will be back in that spot. Present plans call for the first show on November 7. The Cleveland Ensemble at 6 Sunday evening and Hancock Ensemble at 8 will give you a large slice of soul very fine music. We thought we had all the advance "dope" on

Heart Attack Hits Flier Prior to Fiery Crash

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Oct. 16 (AP)—Second Lt. Harry Marcus Maughan of Walla Walla, Wash., veteran courier pilot for the civil air patrol, suffered a heart attack before he plunged to his death Friday three miles east of Falcon, Colo., county corner Fred R. Baker, Jr., said today.

Whether the pilot was dead before his plane crashed and burned was not determined by an autopsy Baker reported.

Roseburg Indians Defeated, 7 to 6, By Cottage Grove

Cottage Grove high school defeated the Roseburg Indians 7 to 6 on Friday night in a football game which had the excitement crammed into the last few minutes of play. After the game had gone through three scoreless quarters, in which each team fumbled away several scoring chances, the Cottage Grove Lions uncorked a downfield drive midway in the fourth period following Harpole's interception of Hooten's pass to Jannelli on the Cottage Grove 38-yard stripe. Carpenter broke loose for a 22-yard gain to reach Roseburg territory and Harpole followed with a smash to the Roseburg 18-yard marker, from which point he dropped a pass into the arms of Edwards, who was untouched as he crossed the goal line. Harpole plunged through the center of the Roseburg line to score the extra point.

Roseburg quickly came back, taking Harpole's kickoff on the 35-yard line and carrying to the 40, from which spot Hooten dropped a pass over the Cottage Grove defense to Horn, who galloped 30 yards to score. Hooten's attempted kick from placement was blocked, giving Cottage Grove the game by a one-point margin.

The Lions drove to the Roseburg 18 in the closing minutes of the game but were held for downs when two passes were incomplete, and on the last play of the contest Hooten again completed a long pass to Horn, who was dragged down in the exact center of the field as the whistle blew.

Opportunities Missed

Cottage Grove missed a scoring opportunity in the first five minutes of play after the Indians were backed into a hole when Hooten fumbled the first kick-off and Wickendale recovered on the Roseburg 20. Harpole drove to the 1-yard line but fumbled the ball and Roseburg recovered. The Indians booted out of danger and neither team was again in a scoring position until late in the third period when a roughing penalty gave Roseburg the ball on the Cottage Grove 18 yard line. The Indians were heading for pay dirt when Marsters fumbled on a plunge through center and Cottage Grove took over and kicked out to midfield.

The lineup: Cottage Grove Pos. Roseburg Land L.E. Hughes Hoyer L.T. Phippen Fowling L.G. Motschenbacher Wearhouspoon C. Knigge Wicks R.G. Turner Wickendale R.T. Krell Woolley Q. Horn Carpenter L.H. Talley Edwards R.H. Currier Harpole F. Marsters

Substitutions: Cottage Grove—Moore, Arp, McCoy, Campbell; Roseburg—Morgan, Smith, Jannelli, Marr.

Jimmy Garrison Loses Decision to Morris

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 16 (AP)—Young Billy Morris, 16, of Philadelphia, led all the way last night to take a 10-round decision from the Missouri veteran, Jimmy Garrison, 150, of Kansas City.

Garrison's only real threat was in the eighth when he nearly got a knockdown with a right uppercut to Billy's jaw. A badly gashed mouth and one closed eye handicapped Garrison near the last but he was still fighting gamely.

NEWS OF OUR MEN—WOMEN IN UNIFORM

Private Dean Fogel, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Fogel of Roseburg, has been transferred from Fort Benning, Ga., to Camp Shelby, Miss., according to word received by his parents. He is serving with a headquarters company.

Sergeant Richard A. Prince has arrived safely in England, according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene A. Prince, of Roseburg. He writes that he has found the people of England very friendly to the American troops.

Donald W. Lilja, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lilja, Canyonville, is among 247 naval recruits especially selected through aptitude tests for specialized training in electricity, according to word received here. He has been assigned to the naval training school at the naval academy in St. Louis, Mo. The course of study at the specialty school will include practical experience in the function, operation and maintenance of electrical tools and equipment, while electricity and the radio elements of electricity will comprise the theoretical phase. Upon graduation he will be eligible for an advanced petty officer rating.

William Allen White in Hospital for Check-Up

ROCHESTER, Minn., Oct. 14 (AP)—William Allen White, noted Kansas editor, entered a hospital here yesterday for examination by Mayo clinic physicians. Doctors said the examination would require several days.

Before Pearl Harbor the United States obtained all its agar, used in ice creams, sherbets, puddings and other products, from Japan.

Basora Scores Win Over Fritzie Zivic

DETROIT, Oct. 16 (AP)—Former Welterweight Champion Fritzie Zivic of Pittsburgh suffered one of the most decisive setbacks of his long ring career when Jose Basora, Puerto Rican from New York, punched out an easy ten-round triumph last night. Basora weighed 151, Zivic 150.

Zivic, who meets Jake La Motta next month, had hoped to match him for the course on Basora—five knockdowns and an easy decision that La Motta scored here recently. But Basora, a 1 to 2 underdog in the betting, didn't give Fritzie a chance.

Referee Elmer McClelland's scorecard gave Zivic the first round and called one other even, the rest going to Basora. The two judges gave Fritzie no rounds at all but conceded that two were even.

Basora opened Zivic's eye in the fourth and seemingly grew stronger as the bout progressed. In the tenth he finished off by pounding Zivic freely without gringing him down.

Salem Brewery Bought By Seattle Company

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 5—(AP)—The Seattle Brewing & Maltng company announced today the purchase of the controlling interest in the Salem Brewery of Salem, Ore., second largest of four breweries in Oregon. The announcement was made here by E. G. Sick, president of the Seattle firm, who did not disclose the consideration. Sick, owner of the Seattle Pacific Coast league baseball club and former Seattle chamber of commerce president, will become president of the Salem company. F. W. Shepard, Seattle, will manage the plant.

The Salem Brewery will retain its identity, however, and its operating personnel will remain unchanged. Sick said, it's board of directors will be enlarged and will include Stephen Chadwick, Seattle attorney and former national commander of the American Legion, who received his early education in Salem. Sick said improvements are planned for the Salem plant, which was founded in 1874.
