Lt. (j. g.) and Mrs. C. A. Chamberlin and wedding party

Lovely Elizabeth Anne Newenham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lincoln Newenham, 1419 Argonne Drive, North Chicago, walked to the altar of Howe's Memorial chapel in Evanston last Wednesday afternoon to become the bride of Lt. (j. g.) Clarence Albert Chamberlin, chaplain, USNR.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a wedding gown fashioned of white marquisette with chintilly lace in the yoke and sweeping train. Her fingertip veil was caught to a Juliet cap of pearls and her single strand of pearls was the gift of her bridegroom. With her white Bible she carried a white orchid.

Dr. Paul Minear of Garrett Biblical Institute, Evanston, read the service in the presence of the bride couple's relatives and a few intimate friends. Mrs. James S. Sharp at the organ played the Lohengrin wedding march and David Seaman of Garrett Biblical Institute sang "Because" by D'Hardiet and "Lord's Prayer" by Malotte.

Miss Nancy Tinsley, as maid of honor, and Miss Carolyn McKean, bridesmaid, were dressed in matching frocks of pink marquisette. Their flowers of white gladioli and blue delphinium were repeated in their head-dresses.

Robert A. W. Bruehl of Chicago attended Lt. Chamberlin. Heath Goodwin of Pentwater, Mich., served as usher.

The wedding reception was held later in the day at the New-ent residence in North Chicago, where 100 guests were greeted. Mrs. Newenham chose a sheer gray crepe dress and gardenias for both occasions.

Among guests from out-of-town were Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ritchie, Elkhardt, Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. W. Bruehl and son, Richard, the Rev. Draper Bishop and Mrs. Bishop, Chicago; Mrs. L. A. Whitcomb, Dr. H. G. Smith, Mrs. Paul Minear, Evanston; Litton Field, St. Paul, Minn. and Mrs. Merton Douthitt, Seymour, Ind.

Following the reception Chaplain Chamberlin and his bride left for Seneca Falls, N. Y., where they will make their home near his base, the U. S. naval training station, Sampson, N. Y. Chaplain Chamberlin, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Chamberlin of Roseburg, Ore., entered service last February. Previous to that he served as pastor of North Chicago Methodist church. He received his degree from the University of Oregon where he belongs to Delta Tau Delta social fraternity. He was graduated in June 1942 from Garrett Biblical Institute.

The former Miss Newenham was graduated from Waukegan Township high school in 1940. She took her freshman year at Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo., and her second and third college years at Lake Forest. She completed her junior studies last June and is a member of Alpha Delta Pi social sorority.

Mrs. Robert Roy Tinsley, 325 Gillett ave., entertained the bridal party at dinner the evening before the wedding.
