

Society and Clubs

BY LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

POTLUCK HARDTIME PARTY TO BE HELD BY REBEKAHS

Roseburg Rebekah lodge No. 41 will sponsor a very enjoyable six-thirty o'clock potluck hardtime party Tuesday night at the I. O. O. F. hall. Those attending are asked to bring a covered dish, but no desserts. Lois Updike, Daynise Beach and Amy Adair are in charge of decorations and the supper will be in charge of Blanche Marr and Claribel Houck, joint chairmen, assisted by Betty Kronke, Dorthy Smith, Jess Marr, H. A. Taylor and Pearl Shugart. Entertainment for the evening has been arranged by Elsie Russell, Lydia Roadman and Emma Taylor. Members and visiting members are cordially invited to be present.

All members attending the party and not in costume will be fined. The proceeds from the fines will go to the flower fund. Everyone attending has been requested to bring noise-makers.

WAC RECRUITING PROGRAM TO BE HELD WEDNESDAY

Miss Helen Casey has completed arrangements for a most interesting and entertaining program to be given Wednesday evening at 7:30 for the WAC recruiting school to be held in the building on North Jackson street opposite the Montgomery Ward store.

Musical numbers and special feature novelties will be included on the program. The general public has been cordially invited to enjoy the entertainment. Douglas county WAC quota has been set for ten recruits.

ROTARIANS AN LADIES TO ENJOY BOX SUPPER AT BOOTH HOME THURSDAY

A six-thirty o'clock box supper will be enjoyed by the Rotarians and their ladies and invited guests Thursday evening at the attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Booth on Court street. This affair will replace the regular weekly noon luncheon of the Rotary club at the Umpqua hotel.

CRUISERS CLUB TO MEET AT SUPPER

The Cruisers club of the First Presbyterian church has arranged a delightful six-thirty o'clock potluck supper and social affair for tonight to be held at the church parlors. Following the supper, a business session and program will be held, after which a program will be enjoyed. All members are urged to be present.

F. S. CLUB TO MEET AT HATFIELD HOME

The F. S. club will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harry F. Hatfield. All members are most cordially invited to be present.

WAC Carnival Caravan to Visit Roseburg

A local feature of the Women's Army Corp's casualty replacement recruiting program will be the appearance of the WAC Carnival Caravan. The unusual unit arrives here Wednesday for a two day stay and will be located opposite Montgomery Ward Store. Between the hours of 10 a. m. and 5 p. m., WAC representatives will be on hand and free movies will be shown picturing army life in the women's army. Heading the campaign in Douglas county is Mrs. Ethel Roselund, of the Legion Auxiliary recruiting committee.

ANNUAL HOMECOMING TO BE HELD BY CLUB TONIGHT

The Business and Professional Women's club will hold its annual homecoming affair at a delightful seven-thirty o'clock salad supper at the Woman's clubhouse tonight. Mrs. Gene Mills, president, has urged all members to be present and prospective members are to be invited as special guests.

INTER-SE STUDY CLUB TO MEET ON TUESDAY

Mrs. Clyde Beard has most cordially invited the Inter-Se Study club members to be her guests at a one o'clock dessert-luncheon at her home on East Washington street Tuesday. Mrs. C. M. Stark will have charge of the afternoon's program.

EAGLES AUXILIARY TO INITIATE CANDIDATES

Every member of the Eagles auxiliary has been urged to attend an important meeting at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening at the Eagles hall, as initiation of a large class of candidates will take place.

Around the County

Glendale

GLENDALE, Oct. 23.—Mrs. Stuart Patten of Klamath Falls was a week-end guest at the home of Mrs. Elma Archambeau and Miss Florence Johnson. Mrs. Patten, who was Miss Ina Johnson before her marriage, was formerly a teacher in the Glendale grade school for several years.

Mrs. J. K. Howard is teaching Mr. Shaw's classes in the high school until a teacher is elected to fill the vacancy left by his resignation in order that he might accept the position of acting postmaster of Glendale.

Mrs. Adelbert Abraham left Tuesday evening for Seattle where she will visit for a month with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Bryan.

The first practice football game of the season between Glendale high school and Wolf Creek high school was played on the Glendale field Friday, October 15, with Glendale defeating Wolf Creek with a 27-7 score. School was dismissed at 2 o'clock to permit students and teachers to attend. The players for Glendale included Gene St. Clair, Frank Harris, Donald Cleveland, Frank St. Clair, Bob Aldrich, Dick Cejka, Jack Duncan and Howard Edson.

Mrs. Walter Kemp is assisting two days a week in the Glendale school office and library. Last year Mrs. Kemp drove the school bus daily and assisted in the office.

Freshman class officers for the

HELPS PREVENT COLDS From Developing

At the first sneeze, sniffle or sign of nasal irritation, put a few drops of Vicks Vapo-rinol up each nostril. Its quick action aids nature's defenses against colds. Follow directions in folder.

year are: Odella Cook, president; Jerry McNeil, vice-president; Jenny Sparks, secretary; Pat Christie, treasurer; and Wayne Johnson, sergeant-at-arms. Sophomore class officers for the year are: Wilma Sparks, president; Frank St. Clair, vice-president; Frank Harris, secretary and treasurer; and Gerald Brady, sergeant-at-arms.

Friday, October 15, was Freshman day at Glendale high school. Throughout the day the Freshman boys wore their clothing wrong side out and the Freshman girls wore their clothing backwards and wrong side out. Each Freshman was required to bow when in the presence of any Sophomore and the days ceremonies culminated in a party at the high school gymnasium that evening. The entire Freshman and Sophomore classes attended and games were enjoyed as the main entertainment of the evening. Later refreshments were served by the Freshman class advisor, Mrs. Carl Sether, and the Sophomore class advisor, Mrs. Clyde Lunnen.

Viggo Lassen and Dub Shearson, who operate the Glendale meat market, left Sunday for Clovis, Calif., for a week's visit with Mrs. Shearson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shearson, and Mr. Lassen's father and mother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Drew. The men plan to return to Glendale Saturday.

J. E. Harris and W. R. Stevenson are repairing the Glendale meat market this week while it is closed for repairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shaw have purchased the former W. J. Vestel house and will make their home there permanently.

Wednesday evening a group of Glendale girls, members of Job's Daughters, bethel No. 18 of Myrtle Creek, attended the Job's Daughters initiation in Myrtle Creek, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Dan Clark, Mrs. Clyde Lunnen, and Mr. A. G. Clark. Girls initiated into the organization were Marion Clark of Glendale and Marilyn Robinson formerly of Glendale now living in Roseburg. After the initiation refreshments were served to members and guests. The following Glendale members attended: Mary Ann Bowman, Effie Edson, Phyllis Smith, Faye Place, Pat Clark, Evelyn Uebel, Gwendolyn Howard and Lorraine Clark.

Days Creek

DAYS CREEK, Oct. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wright and daughters, Della and Doris, and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wright were visiting in Medford Sunday.

Mrs. Bruce Ferguson and daughter, Kay, returned Saturday evening from Yoncalla where they had taken Mrs. Ferguson's mother, Mrs. Elmer Ellison.

Sgt. David Orpin of Roseburg was inspecting the local observation post Monday.

F. W. Bigham of Bayview, Idaho, and his son, Dick Bigham, of Spokane were visiting friends here Wednesday and Thursday. They were returning from Medford where they had been called by the death of Mr. Bigham's brother, Pearl Bigham.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wright have received word of the birth of a son, Warren Clifford, to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Currier of Troutdale. Mrs. Currier, nee Gertrude Epping, is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wright.

Miss Evelyn Raymond recently spent a three-day vacation here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Raymond, being here at the same time that her brother, Major Norman Raymond, and his family were visiting here. Willbourn Raymond, who is employed by the Edison company in southern California, had also planned to be at home at that time but due to a delay in receiving the information as to when Major Raymond would be here did not come.

Mr. and Mrs. Josh Wright of Darby, Montana, arrived here Wednesday having been called by the sudden death of Mrs. Wright's brother, Jack Higgins. They plan to spend several weeks visiting relative and friends here and also expect to go to Fort Lewis to visit their son, George, before returning to Montana.

Mrs. Roy Duncan and Mrs. A. E. Moore spent Friday in Eugene where they visited Mrs. Howard Moore who had undergone a serious major operation at the Sacred Heart hospital a week earlier.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Johnson and their daughter, Miss Jean, who for the past year have resided here have gone to northern California to make their home.

Leeland Van Norman, who recently completed his "boot" training at Camp Farago, is spending several days here visiting relatives and friends. While at camp he saw Melvin Welch, who recently went there to begin his training.

Mrs. Cecil Connor and her children of Portland are visiting here with Mrs. Connor's mother, Mrs. Bob Paris; her sisters, Mrs. Earl Weseman, Mrs. Ray Wright, Mrs. Ivan Welch and Mrs. Carl M. Hill and her brother, Lawrence Michaels.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Ulam returned Thursday afternoon from Monterey, Calif., where they had been visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Lt. and Mrs. Gene Brady. They were accompanied by their granddaughter, Sharon Clark, who had been spending several weeks in the south.

Mrs. Vance Jones and son, Barry, who for a number of weeks has been here with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Spore, have left for Corvallis.

Buster Rondeau is spending a few days leave of absence at the Rondeau ranch above Tiller. He has for many months been on active duty with the navy having just recently returned to the mainland. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Rondeau and their family of Glendale have also been visiting at the Rondeau ranch while he is here but returned home Thursday evening. He was accompanied from Portland by his stepfather and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Haskell.

Mr. and Mrs. "Bud" Meador of Gladstone were recently guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Ferguson. Other guests at the Ferguson home during the weekend included Mr. and Mrs. Don Ferguson and daughter, Joyce, and son, Gordon, of Umpqua who came to assist Mr. Ferguson celebrate his birthday anniversary.

Local News

Second Crop Ripes—L. A. Norman of Camas Valley, in Roseburg today, was exhibiting fully-ripened stringed beans grown from a second crop.

Back From Los Angeles—Mrs. Eugene Gilks returned to her work in the Douglas Abstract office this morning, following a trip to Los Angeles to attend to business matters and to bring her automobile back here.

Returns To Portland—Roy Entler, former Roseburg resident and now of Portland, has returned home, following a two-day stay attending to business. Mr. Entler is now engaged in defense work at the Swan island shipyards.

Leaves For Base—Seaman Second Class Thomas Stovall has left for the U. S. navy training station at Farragut, Idaho, following a 15-day leave in Roseburg visiting his wife and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Stark, on North Jackson street.

Back From Coast—Charles G. Stanton has returned to his home on South Pine street, following a visit at Toledo with his son, George Stanton, and family, and a stopover in Reedsport with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James Ellis.

Attend To Business—Mr. and Mrs. Hardesty and Mrs. Milo Bachelor have returned to their homes in Eugene, following a business trip to Roseburg. The Hardesty family expect to move to Roseburg in the near future. Mrs. Hardesty and Mrs. Bachelor were formerly Eva and Marie Vogelphol of Sutherlin.

Spend Two Days Here—Mrs. Roy Smith (Grace Montgomery) of Portland and her sister, Mrs. E. W. Gurney, and two small daughters, Judith Ann and Marlene, of Albany spent Thursday and Friday in Roseburg as guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Miller at 401 Commercial avenue.

Returns To Portland—Mrs. R. E. Crawford has returned to her home in Portland, following a few days in Roseburg attending to business and visiting at the home of Miss Gladys H. Strong. The Crawford family formerly resided on Winchester street in Roseburg. Their home was sold to the J. P. Moitschenbacher family two years ago.

Republican Women Get Luncheon Bid—Republican women of Douglas county are invited to attend a 12 o'clock no-hostess luncheon at the Hotel Umpqua Thursday to hear Mrs. Richardson, state vice president of the Oregon Republican Central committee. Reservations for the luncheon are in charge of Mrs. Roy O. Young.

Reported Improving—D. C. McGhehey, former resident of Glendale, is now reported to be improving in health at McMinnville, where he recently suffered a bad leg injury when kicked by a horse. Mr. and Mrs. McGhehey report in a recent letter that they are keeping track of their many friends in Roseburg by reading the News-Review.

Obtain Marriage License—A marriage license has been issued in Portland to Harold R. McCartney, Tacoma, and Merle C. Henry, 1734 S. W. Yamhill street, Portland. Mr. McCartney is on the engineering staff of Bonneville administration. Miss Henry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Henry, former Roseburg residents, was assistant city librarian in Roseburg and for the last several months has been employed at Meier & Frank's in Portland.

Lt. Collins Arrives—Lt. Charles S. Collins of the 377 Infantry of the 95th division arrived in Roseburg Friday to spend his 10-day leave with his wife and baby daughter at their home in Laurelwood. Mrs. Collins returned to Roseburg last June from San Antonio, Tex., at which time Lt. Collins was transferred to Louisiana for maneuvers. He has recently been assigned to a desert training center in southeastern California. Lt. Collins was with the forest service before entering the army and at one time was stationed in Roseburg.

Relief At Last For Your Cough

Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

CREOMULSION for Coughs, Chest Colds, Bronchitis

Admitted To Hospital—Mrs. Ethel Weatherly of Elkton has been admitted to Mercy hospital for medical treatment.

Club to Meet Tuesday—The Twelve and Won club will meet Tuesday at a 1 o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. Fred Ritzman on Hamilton street.

Ill Several Days—Richard McClintock, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. McClintock, has been ill the last several days at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McClintock, on East Cass street.

Home On Furlough—Sergeant Carl White, gunner on a B-24 bomber in the army air force, Salt Lake City, Utah, is in Roseburg spending his furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi White, after which he will report back to his base for overseas duty.

Passes State Board—According to word received in Roseburg, Miss Yvonne Boor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Boor, has passed the state board examination and is now in the nursing cadet corps. Miss Boor has finished her preliminary nurses training at Sacred Heart hospital and will continue the course at Eugene.

Dance Announced—John MacDonald, recreational aide at the Veterans facility, has announced the first dance of the season to be held at the facility for Wednesday evening, October 27, from 7:45 to 10 o'clock. The affair is to be sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary department of Oregon, with Mrs. Iona Wood, department hospital chairman, in charge of arrangements. All members of the auxiliary and their friends have been asked to attend the dance.

NEWS OF OUR MEN—WOMEN IN UNIFORM

Ira C. Byrd, former president of the Umpqua Flying club and once employed as a deputy sheriff in the county tax department, now is serving as a flight instructor at Fort Stockton, Texas, where he is with the 9th army air force flying training detachment. He recently was graduated with an aircraft and engine mechanic's rating in addition to his instructor's rating. He reports he has been getting a great deal of flying experience.

Theodore F. Insley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Insley, Lookingglass star route, Roseburg, has arrived at the University of North Dakota in Grand Forks for a course of army air force instruction. Following five months of academic courses and elementary flight training, he will be appointed as aviation cadet.

Myron E. Vleck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Vleck, was commissioned Oct. 20, at the midshipmen's school at New York as an ensign in the U. S. naval reserve. He has had 15 weeks of training in the V-7 division of the navy.

Cleora Baquet, formerly employed at the Veterans facility here, is now stationed in San Francisco, having been returned recently from duty with the navy at Honolulu. A veteran of the first World War, Baquet enlisted at the outbreak of the current war and is one of four employees at the local facility back in service. He also has a son, Edwin C. Baquet, in service. He writes that he desires to express appreciation to the Eagles lodge at Roseburg for remembrances to members, and also solicits letters from his friends, who may write to him at the following address: C. Baquet, U. S. C. 1/6, 62nd Batt. Hqs. Co., U. S. N. C. B., Fleet P. O., San Francisco, Calif.

Roy Virgil Hatfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy V. Hatfield, Roseburg, was graduated Oct. 20 from the naval air training center at Corpus Christi, Texas. A former student of Roseburg high school and Oregon State college, he was commissioned as an ensign in the U. S. naval reserve.

Umpqua Savings and Loan Association
Real Estate Loans
Phone 87

Sell or Trade Your Used Furniture to JUDD FURNITURE CO.
Phone 26

GEO. W. DIMMICK AGENCY
REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE
125 Cass Street, Phone 484-L farms—stock ranches—timber lands

RUSSELL'S Typewriter Service
Office Machine Service and Supplies
335 N. Jackson Phone 320

H. C. STEARNS Funeral Director
Phone 472
OAKLAND, ORE.
Licensed Lady Assistant
Any Distance, Any Time
Our service is for ALL, and meets EVERY NEED

Today & Tuesday

Acclaimed BY 40,000,000 READERS!
One of life's greatest stories comes to the screen

MARY O'HARA'S
MY FRIEND FLICKA
TECHNICOLOR
SHOWS 7:15 and 9:15 P. M.

ROSE Theatre

COMING WED. ROY ROGERS in SILVER SPURS
THRILL! ACTION!

and
Collins WILD BILL ELLIOTT

with WILD BILL ELLIOTT

THIS BEAR IS YOUR BEST FRIEND

He is the symbol of a service designed to give you maximum performance from your car and tires.

We use the nationally known BEAR equipment for frame, wheel and axle service.

323 N. Main St.
Phone 352

STEPHENS AUTO CO.

NOTICE

Effective November 1st. We are conforming with O. D. T.'s order of two deliveries and two pickups each week.

Mondays and Fridays

UMPQUA CLEANERS

Phone 472 231 North Main