POET'S CORNER

The following poem appeared in a recent copy of the poetry magazine "Midwest Horizons," at Akeley, Minnesota.

Where Moonlight Falls
High upon the mountain a round moon tips
The tallest firs with light,
And from their crosses silver beauty drips.
To bless the throbbing night,
Broken, I lean my heart on those light bars,
Knowing, that somewhere, you,
In loneliness rest, under desert stars.
This moon above you, too,
Mabel Madison Rader, Oakland, Oregon.

Reconsideration Of Vote To Boost Taxes Probable

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—(AP)—A fear that they had acted hastily in approving higher postal rates and wines was voiced by several members of the house ways and means committee today.

As a move developed to reconsider the action, which would yield only about $1,439,500,000 of the $10,500,000,000 in new revenues sought by the administration, Rep. Robertson (D. Va.) told fellow committee members that he would call for a showdown on a federal retail sales tax, probably tomorrow.

One committeeman said privately that several members felt that jumping the liquor tax from $6 to $10 a gallon, as proposed by the group, would result in bootlegging.

Rep. Carlson (R-Kas.), a ways and means member, said he would ask the committee to reconsider its vote raising postal rates, especially as they affect newspapers.

He interpreted the committee action as doubling publishers'

second class rates on newspapers and magazines and said:

"Consider the action ill-advised, especially at a time when people need information through the press and when many newspapers have suffered revenue losses due to less advertising in wartime. I believe the freedom of the press is involved."

The postage change would not affect free-in-county mailing of newspapers.

Representative Disney (D.-Okla.) said he would seek reconsideration of the vote to raise the airmail rate from six to 12 cents an ounce.
