Celebrate Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Singleton

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Singleton, two of Roseburg's most prominent residents, received the congratulations of relatives and friends on their golden wedding anniversary Sunday afternoon, October 31, when they held open house from 1:30 to 6 o'clock at their beautiful home on East Douglas street.

Arrangements for the affair were in charge of the Singleton's daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ford Singleton, who was very capably assisted by Mrs. Cynthia Germond, a neighbor and close friend of the family for many years. Mrs. Fred Dent and Mrs. D. W. Hollwell assisted Mrs. Ford Singleton with the decorations.

A profusion of very artistically arranged bouquets of gold-colored roses and chrysanthemums were used to decorate the rooms. The serving table, covered by a beautiful hand-crocheted lace cloth, was centered by a large Victorian bell holding gold-colored roses and ferns and flanked by tall lighted tapers. The three-tiered gold and white decorated wedding cake was topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom. Mrs. R. D. Coen served the wedding cake and Mrs. D. W. Hollwell had charge of the guest book. Mrs. E. A. Britton greeted and Mrs. Fred Dent and Mrs. Cynthia Germond assisted in serving. Mrs. Singleton, in a two-piece

Marry at Impressive Ceremony

Staff Sergeant and Mrs. Eugene H. Rawson

Miss Betty Mae Whipple, beautiful daughter of Attorney and Mrs. R. L. Whipple, of Roseburg, became the bride of Staff Sergeant Eugene H. Rawson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ward B. Rawson, of Salt Lake City, Utah, at a very impressive ceremony Sunday, October 31, at the Methodist church in Roseburg. Rev. R. A. Feenstra performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of several hundred friends and relatives of the couple.

Six large baskets of white chrysanthemums, interspersed with candleabra holding tall white candles, formed a lovely setting against the massive background of laurel and huckleberry greenery. Standards, twined with ivy, held white candles marking the pews. The church decorations were arranged by Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly, Mrs. George Wharton and Mrs. A. E. Kent.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. Gordon Stewart, sister of the bride, who was charming in a maroon-colored, ermine-trimmed with the bride's dress, with brilliant, she wore a corsage of white gardenias. Mrs. Stewart played "I Love You Truly" and "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" as the aisle and altar candles were lighted by Mrs. B. D. Burningham, of Salt Lake City, a sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Helen Jane Kerr, Mrs. Burningham was lovely in a pink chiffon and lace gown with corsage of gardenias and Miss Kerr wore chartreuse-colored ermine and a corsage of single dahlias in a salmon shade. Both wore sequin and beaded headresses.

Mrs. Hugh Whipple, of Drain, an aunt of the bride, very charmingly sang, "Because," and "O Promise Me." She wore an attractive rose-colored formal and a corsage of gardenias.

With the opening strains of the Bridal chorus from Lohengrin, the wedding party advanced to the altar. The Rev. Mr. Feenstra, the bridegroom and his best man, Staff Sergeant Gustav E. Weber, were followed by the four ushers: Staff Sergeant David Orpin, Staff Sergeant P. Rudolph, Corporal Glen Phillips and Private First Class Sam Munsey. The bridesmaids were Miss Athalia Taylor, in pale pink and blue; Miss Freda Barker, in blue; and Miss Marjorie Ott, in chartreuse. The four carried tiny nosegays of chrysanthemums tied with white satin ribbons. Flower-trimmed net headresses were worn by the four, as well as by the maid of honor, Miss Faith Young, whose gown was of peach net, and who carried a shower bouquet of pink rosebuds, white carnations and chrysanthemums. Tiny Nancy Stewart, niece of the bride, was flower girl in white in a floor-length ruffled pink or tulle gown. She carried a basket of rose petals.

The bride advanced to the altar on the arm of her father and was very beautiful in a floor-length wedding gown of white tulle, with a light fitting bodice with a deep purple throat. Her dress was of soft tulle. She wore a gold cross and chain, a wedding gift of the bridegroom, and carried a shower bouquet of brodiaea, bouvardia and centered with a large white orchid with a deep purple throat. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a Juliet cap of shirred net and seed pearls.

The bride's mother wore a floor-length gown of black crepe fashioned with a wide girde studded with green brilliants, long white gloves and a corsage of gardenias. The bridegroom's mother also wore a floor-length afternoon gown of black crepe fashioned with a deep yoke of black chiffon and a corsage of gardenias.

MRS. C. E. ROBERTS PRESENTS CHARMING CLUB PROGRAM TUESDAY

Mrs. C. E. Roberts, charming guest speaker of the Roseburg Woman's club guest-day birthday tea at the clubhouse Tuesday afternoon, delighted the large group of members and guests with a review of numerous late books, including biographies, novels, travel and war books as well as several humorous books. Mrs. Roberts is an outstanding speaker and her part of the program added much to make the affair one of the most delightful birthday parties ever held by the club.

Mrs. R. L. Whipple and Mrs. A. J. Geddes were general chairmen of the party and were assisted by members having birthdays the last six months of the year. Gorgeous bouquets of chrysanthemums, arranged by Mrs. L. L. Wimberly, were artistically placed about the rooms, while the tea table, covered by a lovely lace cloth, was centered by a graceful arrangement of pink Angelo and pink button chrysanthemums, flanked by tall pink tapers.

Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, club president, welcomed the guests and turned the program over to Mrs. Homer Grow, who very graciously announced the numbers. Mrs. Howard Pattison charmingly sang, "Lovely Lady" and "All Through the Night" accompanied by Mrs. Grow, who then announced Mrs. Roberts. At the conclusion of Mrs. Roberts' talk, Miss Helen Casey presented characters of books in observance of national book week. Mrs. Grow played softly on the piano during the feature part of the program and assisting Miss Casey were: Mrs. L. L. Wimberly, Mrs. L. Kohlhaugen, Sr., Mrs. Morris H. Roach and daughter, Betty; Mrs. E. F. Waggoner, Mrs. Paul Jenkins, Mrs. Donn Redabaugh, Mrs. Marshall Holmes, Mrs. Earl Plummer and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

Tea was served at the close of the program. Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, president, and Mrs. H. B. Carter, vice-president, poured.

The club will hold a Red Cross work meeting November 16 at 1:30 at the clubhouse. Mrs. E. J. Loney, former resident of China, will be the guest speaker. This will be a particularly interesting program and every member is urged to be present.

WANDA MIRIAM JURGENS BECOMES BRIDE OF P. F. C. DUNCAN MCLEAN, JR.

Word has been received telling of the marriage of Miss Wanda Miriam Jurgens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold E. Jurgens, formerly of Roseburg and now of Portland, and Private First Class Duncan McLean, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McLean, of Salem, Tuesday morning, August 3, in the chapel at Trux field, Madison, Wisconsin. The service was read by Major C. Waldrop, chaplain.

The bride was lovely in an all-white silk marquisette wedding gown with lace inserts and a white crocheted straw calot trimmed with navy blue ribbon and white shoulder-length veiling. She wore a corsage of five lilies studded with tiny red rosebuds. Dorothy Packard, the bride's attendant, was lovely in an ashen of roses frock with a corsage of sweetpeas. Private First Class Lynn Packard acted as best man. Also present were Privates First Class Alan Parker and Ross Feasenmeyer of Trux field.

Following the ceremony, the bride and bridegroom left for a brief trip to the cave of the moose and Little Norway.

The bride is well known in Roseburg, having been graduated from senior high school in the class of 1942 and she was very active in church and temperance work.
