ning high honors and Mrs. Lawrence Robertson and Harry Stearns, low.

Fines Imposed On 7 Petty Offenders

Five fines for drunkenness or disorderly conduct were reported from the Roseburg city court today and two fines were imposed on charges of drunkenness in the justice court as a result of the holiday roundups by the police.

City Recorder A. J. Geddes reported fines as follows: Arnold Groves, $10, disorderly conduct; Dee Green, $15, drunk and disorderly; Ray Roberts, $10, disorderly; J. J. Geiser, $20, drunk; Melvin Pike, $15, disorderly. Groves and Pike were continued in custody in lieu of payment of their fines.

Justice of the Peace Thomas Hartfel reported a fine of $10 paid by Donald L. Evans, and $15 by Silas White, both pleading guilty to charges of being drunk on a public highway.

Other fines in the justice court included $10 paid by Richard F. Spearing who pleaded guilty to operating a truck with an over-height load.

Germans ,British Battle For Island of Leros

CAIRO, Nov. 12—(AP)—German sea forces attacked the British-held Dodecanese island of Leros this morning, gaining footholds "at some points," a British middle east communique announced today.

Other landing attempts were repulsed and several German landing craft were destroyed or damaged, the announcement continued.

Indicating that spirited battles are under way at the points where the Nazis succeeded in landing, the statement said that "Italian forces are fighting side by side with the British."

Leros lies just north of Cos, which was wrested from the British by a German sea and airborne force several weeks ago.

Points Off Small Jars Of Jelly, Jam, Preserves

Effective today the smallest sized jars of jam, jellies, preserves and fruit butters weighing five and one half ounces or less may be purchased without ration stamps, the district OPA announced.

Since October 31, jam, jellies and fruit butter required from two to three ration points for sizes running to and including eight ounces. Jars from five and one half to eight ounces keep their original ration value of three points for jams, preserves and non-citrus marmalades and two points for jellies and fruit butter.

Point-free purchases will be permitted only through the holiday season and a point value will be reestablished on the February point chart, according to present OPA plans.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 12—(AP)—Fishing in the Nostucca river, Gordon Nelson hooked a whopper that broke the line.

Nelson reeled up new tackle and tried again. He landed an 18-pound silverside salmon.

It was the same fish, hooked in the spreader of the broken tackle.
