W. C. T. U. ANNUAL EXHIBIT AND TEA IS SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR

The third annual exhibit and tea to be sponsored by the Roseburg W. C. T. U. was a very successful and charming affair of Tuesday afternoon at the Methodist church parlors. Mrs. Annie L. Russell, president, and her of ficers and the members of the group have expressed their appreciation for the fine cooperation given for the exhibits and for the many persons attending the affair.

Mrs. J. D. Osborn and Mrs. George M. Brown, general chairmen, are being highly commended for their efficient management of the affair. The exhibit was under the care of Mrs. W. J. Adair and Mrs. V. J. Miceli with Mrs. Luella Rice, Mrs. Hugh Harrison, Mrs. Fred Southwick and Mrs. C. E. Jones in charge of the display of fine laces, tablecloths and bedspreads. An exhibit of ruses made at the facility was enjoyed and hooked and crocheted ruses were displayed under the direction of Mrs. Ron Zoner and Mrs. N. E. Hatfield with Mrs. Otto Olson and Mrs. A. J. Starmer in charge of the quilt display. The literature table was in charge of Mrs. R. A. Horecher, Mrs. C. A. Edwards and Mrs. C. E. Jones.

Ornate bouquets of chrysanthemums were arranged about the room by Mrs. W. H. Carter and Mrs. Mable P. Taylor, who also were responsible for the very beautiful tea table, which was covered by a lovely lace cloth and centered with a crystal bowl holding assorted varieties of pink chrysanthemums and flanked by crystal candleholders and tall pink tapers.

Mrs. R. A. Feenstra and Mrs. Morris H. Fraenck, who were in charge of the refreshments, were assisted by Mrs. Len B. Fishback and Mrs. W. R. Brown. Seated from 3 to 4: Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, president of the Roseburg Woman's club, and Mrs. Gene Mills, president of the Business and Professional Women's club, were in charge of the refreshments from 4 to 5 o'clock and Mrs. Lula Correll and Mrs. W. H. Carter from 5 to 6 o'clock.

The tea was in charge of Mrs. I. Kohlhaas, Sr., Mrs. J. H. Wolford, Mrs. B. B. Irving and Miss Edith Fishback.

Mrs. Len B. Fishback and Mrs. R. D. Knigge arranged the very charming program for the occasion, which included: piano solo, "The Waltz You Saved For Me," "Isle of Golden Dreams," "The Song Is Ended," and "La Paloma," played by Mrs. Gilbert Wolters; vocal solos, "Say a Prayer for the Boys Over There" and "Dark Eyes" by Howard Patterson, accompanied by Mrs. Wolters; vocal solos, "I Know a Love," "Kitty," "Have You Found My Kitty," sung by Mrs. E. F. Waegoner accompanied by Mrs. H. L. Boucock; vocal solos, "My Task" and "Mamma's Little Cole Black Rose" sung by Mrs. Kermit Metzler, accompanied by Mrs. Carl Peavy; violin and vibrato harp duets, "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia" and "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms," played by Mrs. Morris H. Roach and Mrs. Archie McNeill; vocal solos, "Little Garden" and "I Walked Beside You" sung by Mrs. R. D. Knigge, accompanied by Mrs. Peavy; vocal duet, "Whispering Hope" by Miss Dorothy Busch and Miss Dorothy Felt, accompanied by Mrs. Knigge; vocal solo, "Ava Maria" sung by Miss Busch, accompanied by Miss Felt; piano solos, "Rhapsody Mignonne" and "Country Gardens," by Miss Busch, and vocal solos, "Dawn," "Friend of Mine" and "As We Part," sung by Mrs. Joseph Deets, accompanied by Mrs. Clyde Beard.

A bazaar of aprons, pot-holders and gift novelties added to the affair and swelled the fund obtained from the admissions. A part of the proceeds will go to the Childrens Farm home at Corvallis.

FORMER ROSEBURG GIRL TO ATTEND SPECIAL TRAINING IN SPARS

Seaman First Class Mabelle J. Lilburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lilburn, of Salem, formerly of Roseburg, was in the first class of Spars to be selected to attend the Link Instrument Trainer Instructors school at naval air station in Atlanta, Ga., according to word received here. On completion of the 10-week course, which she started this week, the Coast Spar will be assigned to a seaguard air station to instruct student pilots in instrument flying.

Miss Lilburn is a very talented violinist. She was born in Roseburg and attended Fullerton grade school, later moving to Salem, where she was graduated from high school and Willamette university, where she received her B. M. degree, majoring in music. She later worked as secretary at Camp Adair and later transferred to the Arizona area, where she was employed at one of the large flying field schools. She joined the Spars and was sent to Hunters college, New York City, in May, after which she was sent to the Spar office in Boston, Mass., where she continued until being selected for the special training course at Atlanta.

Miss Lilburn is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lilburn and a niece of Mrs. Lee A. Wells of Roseburg.

American Legion Auxiliary Activities

By MRS. CLAUDE BAKER
Tuesday evening, November 16, the auxiliary will meet at home of Mrs. Emily Judd at 8 o'clock for their regular social meeting. Mrs. Gaye Mowery, sewing chairman, will be in charge of the affair.

Friends of Mrs. Harry Hatfield will be glad to learn of her appointment by the state Legion commission as hospital worker at the local Veterans facility. She takes the place in-de vacant by the resignation of Mrs. Bess (Irvin) Riegel who is now in the Oakland, Calif., navy hospital where she has had a relapse in her fight to regain her health following pneumonia.

Mrs. Hatfield comes to her work well qualified. A former school teacher, Mrs. Hatfield has held high positions in many local organizations. She is a past president of the local Legion auxiliary, a past noble grand of the Rebekah lodge and recently served two terms as president of the Woman's club. She has served actively in Red Cross and health units. Over a year ago, Mrs. Hatfield trained to become a Gray Lady. To do this work, one must take various courses under the doctors and nurses at the Veterans hospital, which will acquaint the members with hospital techniques and ethics as well as give her a better understanding of the veteran in this type of hospital, without this training Mrs. Hatfield would still have been a natural for the job. She has a son in the service and has the kindly sympathy and poise necessary to work with veterans of the last war and the young men just returned, of whom there are many at the local facility. Mrs. Hatfield's first job will be to get Christmas gifts ready for the gift shop, which is maintained by the auxiliary each year. Men who are unable to shop for their gifts to wife or children may secure whatever they find and wish at the gift shop with no cost to themselves. The lovely gifts are furnished by the units throughout the state.

Armistice day was spent quietly with Legionnaires. Following the program at the theater a noon luncheon was held at the K. P. hall. Commander Erwin Short introduced the several speakers, among whom were Major Moran, Sergeant John McIsaac, Tommy Adkins, Unit President Mrs. L. A. Rhoden, Child Welfare Worker Mrs. Ned Dixon, Mrs. Hatfield, Commander of the Suth-erlin-Oakland Post and Mrs. Ted Post, Douglas county Red Cross secretary. Mrs. Post is a member not only of the auxiliary but of the Legion. She served overseas as a Red Cross nurse in the last war. Ellen says her only regret now is in having been born thirty years too soon. She would still like to be in the fray.

Consensus of opinions expressed by the service men were that this time the job must be finished, that the men must fight not for an armistice this time, but for the unconditional surrender of the axis powers, that they must be made impotent to create another conflict within the next century.

Unit members were happy to welcome Mrs. J. L. Pounds, secretary for two years. She is now living in Lebanon and came to Roseburg to take her daughter, Wilma, home with her for the duration.

Weekly Bowling Chatter

In our Monday night city league the Umpqua Cleaners are leading. They seem to be the team to beat this year.

Ren Young replaced Bob Lindsey in the junior league due to Bob being absent. He has been absent 2-3 days of the games played therefore he had to drop from the leading spot in favor of Renny for the leading spot.

Wednesday night's independent league is still doing very fine bowling. Jerry Phillips had high series with an even 600. Pete Sherman had an unusual series with three 156 games in a row.

The doubles tournament came to a finish last night.

Hoy Rish and Kenny Laurance winning first prize. Tiny Freedman and Roy Young were 2nd. Erdman and Anderson 3rd. Georgia Moore and Paenel Lehrbach were 4th which goes to prove the women have a good chance against the men in a handicap match.

Next Friday, November 19th, we will have our annual turkey shoot.—(Adv.)
