CHRYSANTHEMUM EXHIBIT IS SUCCESSFUL AND DELIGHTFUL EVENT

The third annual chrysanthemum exhibit to be sponsored by the Roseburg Women's club proved to be an unusually enjoyable and successful affair of Saturday from 10 a. m. to 9 p. m. at the clubhouse.

Mrs. R. W. Marsters and Mrs. Foster Butler have expressed their appreciation to the residents of the community for their splendid cooperation in displaying the chrysanthemum blossoms and making the affair such a fine success. The show had the largest attendance of any show sponsored by the club.

Mrs. A. S. Coen and Mrs. George K. Quine acted as cashiers and hostesses assisting Mrs. Marsters and Mrs. Butler were Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, club president, Mrs. W. M. Campbell, Mrs. A. J. Geddes, Mrs. L. L. Wimberly, Mrs. L. Kohlhaugen, Sr., Mrs. Harry F. Hatfield, Mrs. Velle Broadway and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

Exhibitors and the number of varieties they displayed included: Mrs. Ada Morgan, two; Mrs. P. E. Beaver, three; Mrs. W. Mulr, four; Mrs. L. L. Wimberly, nine; Mrs. John Whelan, 21; Mrs. L. Kohlhaugen, Sr., 21; Mrs. H. R. Ritzman, 15; Dr. G. C. Finlay, 15; Mrs. H. Crook, 13; Mrs. U. O. Vaughn, four; Mrs. Andrew J. Ford, three; H. B. Church, six; Mrs. Elsie Wright, two; Mrs. G. W. Cluck, 65, and Mrs. C. A. Campbell, of Oakland, one.

Considerable improvement in the growing of chrysanthemums was noticed over the first exhibit held three years ago and, from the number of persons attending the show, it is believed that next year's exhibit will be even finer. A number of blossoms displayed this year were of the newer varieties and caused much interest among the growers.

The Roseburg Public Library has a number of very fine books on the growing of the chrysanthemum plants and also of the history of the flower. The garden section of the Journal's issue of October 24, also carried the history of the plant.

Room decorations for the affair were arranged by Mrs. Butler and Mrs. Kohlhaugen.

POET'S CORNER

THE PEACE TABLE

Who shall sit at the table, then,
When the treaty of peace is made?
The wisest men from the troubled lands
In their silver and gold brocade?
Yes, they shall gather in solemn state
To speak for each living race;
But who shall speak for the unseen dead
Who shall come to the council place?

Though you see them not
And you hear them not
They shall come to the council too.

They shall throng the halls
Where the peace is made
And know what it is you do
The innocent dead from the sea
Shall rise to stand
And over his shoulder a boy shall look.

A boy who was crucified.
And the men who died in an open boat
And the babes who suffered worse
Shall sit at the table where peace is made.

By the side of a martyred nurse,
Though you see them not they'll all be there,
When they speak you may fail to hear;
You may think that you're making your peace alone
But their spirits will hover near;

And whatever the terms of the peace you make
With the tyrant whose hands are red—
You must please not only the living here,
You must satisfy your dead.
