DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

A Christmas Prayer
Eternal God, our Father, who hast brought us once more unto the joys of the Advent season and made us glad with the yearly remembrance of the birth of thy Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ, grant us grace to enter into the mystery of His coming. We thank thee that the silence was broken at Bethlehem. There in gentle lowliness thy Godhead took on our human form in the child of Mary. Conceived of thy Holy Spirit thou hast visited and redeemed thy people, raising up for all mankind a great salvation in the house of thy servant David, and fulfilling the words of thy holy prophets, which have been since the world began, that we should be delivered from all our foes, both sin and death, and enter upon life immortal. O God of light, lighten our darkness and grant us to behold thy salvation, which thou hast prepared before the face of all people. A light to lighten the Gentiles and its glory of thy people Israel. Thanks be unto thee for, thine unspokeable gift. O God of love, we beseech thee in our extremities, that the governments of this troubled world may speedily be upon his shoulders whose name is Wonderful Counselor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace, through him who is the God of the stem of Jesse and the branch that has grown from his roots. Amen.

Eisenhower's Value on Poker Hand is Acclaimed

NAPLES, Dec. 10 (AP)—Gen. Eisenhower's popularity has skyrocketed throughout the Fifth army as a result of one of his recent pronouncements on the potentiality of drawing a poker hand composed of three kings and a pair of jacks.

A soldier who heard that the commander in chief has a hobby of mathematically computing odds on poker hands asked him about that particular full house. Eisenhower replied that he hadn't actually solved the problem, but would guess the odds against it would be 1,082,900 to 1.

Since then doughboys throughout Italy have been doing heavy pencil and paper work. Scores of them wrote letters to the Stars and Stripes declaring "Ike" almost hit it on the nose with his estimate. One declared, "I've always thought a lot of the general, but now he's tops on my list of great greats."
