4 Persons Hurt in Traffic Accidents

Four persons suffered injuries in traffic accidents Sunday according to reports to police departments. Sylvester Wolf, a resident of Edenbower, was in Mercy hospital, where he was being treated for injuries suffered when he was struck by a car driven by Melvin Coons. Wolf was a pedestrian. The extent of his injuries has not been fully determined today, it was reported.

J. D. Osborn, Southern Pacific company clerk and telegraph operator, suffered fractured ribs and severe bruises Sunday in a collision which also resulted in minor injuries to Chub W. Morningstar, Jr., and Virginia Morningstar. Although both cars were badly damaged in the wreck, which occurred on the turn in front of the Windmill store and tavern in West Roseburg, the occupants of the two machines were not seriously hurt. Osborn was able to return to his work at the S. P. depot today.

Meat Plants Take-Over Is Grange Vote Question

EUGENE, Ore., Dec. 13—(AP)—Oregon granges will vote on a recommendation of the agriculture committee of the state grange that the federal government take over meat packing plants not operating at capacity.

The proposal, made at a state grange conference in Eugene Saturday, was referred to the locals together with suggestions for ceilings on certain types of farm labor.

No action was taken on a proposal for the grange to establish a cooperative packing plant in Portland.

MISERIES OF
Baby's Cold Relieved As He Sleeps

Now... here's wonderful home-proved medication that works 2 ways at once to relieve distress of child's cold—even while he sleeps!

Rub throat, chest and back with Vicks VapoRub at bedtime. Instantly VapoRub starts to relieve coughing spasms, muscular soreness or tightness, and invite restful sleep. Often by morning, most of the misery is gone.

For baby's sake, try VapoRub when colds strike. It must be good, because when colds strike it is what most mothers use.
