L. A. TO B. OF R. T. CHRISTMAS PARTY AND DINNER IS ENJOYED

The Ladies Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen sponsored its annual Christmas party and turkey dinner for members and their families at the Woman's clubhouse last week. Covers were placed for forty-five and the holiday decorations and tall lighted tapers decorated the tables. The evening's door prize was won by R. D. Williams.

At the lodge meeting the new officers were installed and beautiful gifts were presented to Leila Spray, president; Catherine Fream, treasurer, and Jessie Duncan, secretary, in appreciation of their work in the lodge during the last year.

Out-of-town members present for the dinner and party included: Mrs. Anna Hess, Ashland, and Mrs. Esther Dunlap and Mrs. Minnie West, Eugene. Other members in attendance included: Garnet Allison, Anna Walker, Hazel Meissner, Myrtle Snoddy, Elsie Wright, Rena Helbig, Belle Sanders, Catherine Monroe, Beth Wimer, Alda Williams, Nellie Ford, Catherine Fream, Leila Spray and Jessie Duncan.

DINNER ENJOYED AT WANDS HOME THURSDAY

Mr. and Mrs. David King and family were guests at a charming pre-Christmas dinner Thursday evening at seven o'clock dinner given by Mrs. W. I. Wands, Mrs. M. L. Wands and Mrs. Ethel Kluever at the Wands home in Ramona Court. Lovely Christmas gifts were exchanged and visiting was enjoyed during the pleasant evening hours.

MRS. BERNARD YOUNG TO BE GUEST SPEAKER AT WOMAN'S CLUB TUESDAY

Mrs. Bernard A. Young will be guest speaker on the subject, "Hawaii" at the one-thirty o'clock dinner-meeting of the Roseburg Woman's club to be held next Tuesday at the clubhouse. Mrs. Young, a former member of the club, was a resident of Honolulu at the time of the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor. The program will include appropriate music, which is to be arranged by Mrs. Homer Grov. Mrs. Louis Albert Banks, roll-call speaker, will give a charming Bible talk.

The program promises to be one of the finest of the winter season and every member is being particularly urged to be present. The regular 12 o'clock luncheon meeting of the executive board will precede the club meeting.
