retreat in the east."
 UP to the Moscow conference, the Russians persistently poochooped our war in the air and loudly demanded a land front in the west. Whatever the agreements reached at Moscow and Teheran may have called for in the way of performance from us, they seem to have satisfied Stalin.

OWI (office of war information) undertakes to scare us out of what it regards as dangerous optimism regarding the progress of the war.
 In a statement issued in Washington, it tells us that Germany and Japan can take a lot of heavy punishment before collapsing; that Germany has vast masses of slave labor, plenty of steel, more than enough coal and enough oil for her needs; that Japan has enough war supplies stockpiled to last her three years.
 Winning the war, its statement concludes ominously, will be no cinch.

ON the other side of the story, Dr. T. F. Tsiang, director of political affairs in the Chinese cabinet, says in Portland that Japan will not fight to the bitter end, adding that her strength is "brittle," and she will seek peace after her first great defeat.
 He predicts: "The American and British fleets will smash the Japanese fleet, the Burma road will be opened, Japanese shipping and cities will be attacked and the Japanese blockade (of China) will be broken. Then the end will come quickly."

THIS writer's advice (as usual) is to BELIEVE NOBODY'S predictions as to when the war will end, put two and two together, draw your own conclusions and above all else hope for the best and PREPARE FOR THE WORST.

BY way of interesting non-fighting war news, we learn from the dispatches that the American air transport line from India is now freighting as much war material to China as passed over the Burma road at its peak.
 That refers to VOLUME. Cost is another matter.

Preston Grover, Associated Press correspondent who sends the story, says that each gallon of gasoline delivered by air costs at least TWENTY DOLLARS.
 THREE plane loads of fuel, he says, must be carried over the hump to put one heavy bomber in the air in China for one mission against the Japs. For every gallon of gasoline delivered, the transport plane carrying it uses MORE than a gallon.

That's transport under immense difficulties, but we're GET-TING AWAY WITH IT.

VAGUE rumors of trouble in Bulgaria seep through the censorship.
 The Bulgarians would obviously like to get out from under the German thumb, but the Germans

THE FOURTH WAR LOAN

EDITORIAL

By Charles V. Stanton

PREPARATIONS are being made to open the Fourth War Loan campaign. The drive will start in Douglas county January 12. War bonds now being purchased, however, will be credited in the quota assigned to the county.

It is going to take a great deal of work to reach the goal, particularly in view of a $28,000 boost in the amount of bonds to be purchased by individuals. Individuals in Douglas county are asked to buy $549,100 worth of E bonds. That is only $9,000 more than we bought during the Third War Loan campaign, so the goal is not impossible. However, it will take cooperation on the part of every resident.

A strong central committee has been formed, but the work cannot be left to these few men and women. If we are to meet our goal, every resident must put forth a special effort. If every available dollar is channeled into the Fourth War Loan drive, we will have little difficulty in hitting the target.

There is good reason to insist that every idle dollar be invested in financing the war. The next few months are expected to be the most stirring in our national history. Our fighting men are preparing for a bloody assault upon the European continent. The loss of life doubtless will be severe. The expenditure of munitions and materiel will stagger the imagination. The cost of invasion will amount to millions of dollars per minute. We must pay the cost. While our fighting men are paying with their lives and energy, we are asked only to invest our dollars.

Our enemies fear our Fourth War Loan. They are spreading propaganda intended to discourage investors. They are telling that the cost of selling war bonds is excessive. The facts are that the out-of-pocket cost of selling war bonds is only one-thirty-third of one per cent. This unusually low cost of selling bonds is in contrast with two per cent in the sale of similar war bonds by allied nations.

Our enemies also are circulating rumors that war bonds are being cashed in at a very great pace. The truth is, however, that the bonds being turned in are less than had been anticipated.

Out of every 100 bonds, Series E, F and G, sold since war bonds were first introduced, 94 are still in the hands of the original purchasers. Even the most liquid issue, Series E, has a record of 91.5 per cent still owned by original buyers. From total sales of more than $27 billion, redemptions amount to 6.4 per cent, a figure which would indicate that the bonds are being cashed only for legitimate, emergency purposes.

The Fourth War Loan affords us the opportunity to shorten the war by showing our enemies that despite our petty quarrels at home we are still solidly determined that crushing defeat shall be the punishment meted out to the opponents of freedom.

Every war bond is a bullet striking enemy morale. They realize their cause is hopeless. They see certain defeat staring them in the face. They are striving frantically to disunite the United Nations, to stir up distrust, to create friction, with the faint hope that they may thus be able to negotiate a peace and escape with some fraction of their ill-gotten gains.

An oversubscription of the Four War Loan will prove very discouraging to the axis powers and will speed the day of their eventual surrender. Every day the war is shortened means the saving of American lives. Our dollars invested in war bonds can serve to bring back many of our boys who might otherwise be lost.

practically to military occupation.)

It is rather probable that as the Bulgarians look toward Italy, which tried to get out from under the German thumb and over onto our side, but seems to have fal-led, their ardor for revolting against the nazis cools.

OUT of our landing in Italy, we got some important and extremely useful airfields. What the Italians got out of it doesn't yet appear, as the censorship on all Italian affairs has closed down tightly.

One guesses that the results of our Italian venture so far haven't been such as to encourage other countries now in the grip of Germany to try to revolt.

EXCEPT in Russia, the war in Europe seems to be moving very slowly indeed. But don't get impatient.
 If we moved TOO SOON, without adequate preparation, the consequences could be ghastly beyond description.

PREVALENCE OF WEEDS, TRASH DUMPING NOTED

Editor News-Review:
 Sometime ago you had an article in the News-Review about cleaning up and painting up. That was just fine. I think it helped a lot. One often needs a reminder to that effect, as there is nothing easier than to let things slide.
 Now I have a headache about the same thing. I thought maybe you could do something about it. I have not been in the city of Roseburg very long and don't know many people. Therefore I don't know to whom to turn.
 But if the mayor, city police or both, could be persuaded to take a walk down Mosher street to the river, (the south side of

"Hopkins" Letter Anent Willie to Face Jury Probe

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6 (AP)— The disputed "Hopkins letter" relating to the possibility that Wendell Willkie may again be the Republican presidential nominee this year, will be investigated by a federal grand jury, Assistant Attorney General Tom C. Clark announced today.

Clark, said a District of Columbia jury will begin the investigation next week of circumstances surrounding publication of the letter, which Harry L.
 Hopkins has described as "a forgery."

The letter in question, bearing Hopkins' name, and addressed to Dr. Humphrey Lee, president of Southern Methodist University at Dallas, Texas, was recently made public by C. Nelson Sparks, former Mayor of Akron, Ohio, who said he was satisfied about its authenticity.

The investigation, Clark said, is being made to determine whether there has been any violation of a section of the criminal code which makes it a criminal offense to make or publish a forgery with intent to injure another.

out account of weeds and mud) I think they would be interested.
 I am wondering if people have a right to dump everything into the river everything from old shoes and glass to bushels of tin cans. A walk along the river to the last street will reveal what goes into the river. When the water gets high, all this lodges down by the bridge and below and dams up the river and causes it to over flow upstream. They should also see what the opposite bank look like, for stuff is being dumped out there. I also would like to know what right anyone has to destroy trees along the river.

There's another familiar face, in a manner of speaking, returning to the net this Saturday—Macalester College Choir (remember when we used to get them on Saturday mornings?) will hold down the 3:00 p. m. spot. The new series of programs comes from Minneapolis—an 80-voice choir with Gabriel Fenyes, distinguished concert pianist, as featured soloist; so here's lots of good listening for lovers of good music. For Saturday evening at 6 there's an original English production of Puccini's opera, "La Tosca," with Marion Claire and Attilio Baglioni in the leads—that's Chicago Theatre, of course. California Melodies has a new permanent listing (or so they say)—Saturday eve at 8. This week they feature the music of Sam Koslow—such tunes as Sing You Sinners, My Old Flame, Cocktails for Two. Sounds like fun, eh.
 Don't forget to tune in tonight at least by 6:30 for Double or Nothing; and don't be surprised if Frank Forest is on the absentee list—he's had the flu too. Likewise—be reminded that 8:30 is Name That Song. Lots of good things for Sunday too; we'll give you the dope tomorrow.

U. S. VICTORY WASTE PAPER CAMPAIGN

A PROCLAMATION
 BY
 Governor Earl Snell

Whereas there exists, as the result of wartime demands on the paper and paperboard industries, an acute shortage of waste paper, threatening the production of new paper products for military and elementary civilian needs; and Whereas at least an additional two million tons of waste paper are needed to keep mills at peak production, and more can be absorbed to build up reserve inventories; and
 Whereas the normal sources of waste paper are not adequate to meet the wartime requirements for this essential raw material; and Whereas the War Production Board has requested the newspapers of the United States to undertake the U. S. Victory Waste Paper Campaign to generate a flow of waste paper from homes, business establishments and institutions to the paper manufacturers:
 Now, Therefore, I, Earl Snell, Governor of Oregon, do hereby call upon the people of this State to cooperate with the agencies in their communities engaged in waste paper salvage to the end that this shortage, which threatens the conduct of the war against our enemies and the prosecution of our civilian endeavors be speedily corrected.
