MISS BEVERLY MILLER AND ENSIGN DONALD G. WILSON MARRY AT UMPQUA FRIDAY

Miss Beverly Miller, of Oakland, Calif., daughter of Mrs. Clarence Foster, of Redding, Calif., became the bride of Ensign C. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Wilson, of Rollen Acres, Umpqua, Friday evening.

The lovely country home was decorated with huckleberry greens, holly, red carnations, white chrysanthemums and lighted white tapers.

The bride was beautiful in a gold crepe afternoon dress trimmed in heavy lace. She wore a corsage of orchids. Miss Mildred Wallace, of Roseburg, was maid of honor, and wore a brown gabardine suit and a corsage of red roses.

The bride's mother wore a green crepe afternoon dress and the bridegroom's mother wore a two-piece rust afternoon dress. They wore identical corsages of gardenias and roses.

A reception was held following the ceremony and the traditional wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom, was cut and served with other refreshments.

Invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hoagland and Mrs. Mira D. Wilson, of Brookings; Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Wilson, of Drain; Mrs. Charles D. Edwards and Mrs. Ora L. Banker, of Umpqua; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. DeWitt and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barker, of Sutherlin, and the immediate families of the couple.

Following the reception, Ensign and Mrs. Wilson left for Corpus Christi, Texas, where the former will be an instructor.

The Mid-Week Bible class of St. Paul's Lutheran church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Feldkamp in the Kohlhaugen apartments Thursday afternoon. Rev. W. A. Sylvester led the group in an interesting discussion based on the story of Christ feeding the 5000 as recorded in Matthew Chapter 14.

MYRTLE CREEK BETHEL TO HOLD INTERESTING MEETING JANUARY TWENTH

Arlene Mickelson, newly installed honored queen of Bethel 18 will begin her term at the regular meeting to be held January 12, at which time important committees will be announced. Ruth Newton, retiring honored queen, assisted by Eunice Hecht, acting as installing guide; Joyce Ady as installing marshal; Beverly Edwards as installing chaplain; Maurine Robinson as installing secretary and Mamie Wilson as installing musician, installed the following officers at a very impressive installation ceremony Wednesday evening, December 22: Arlene Mickelson, honored queen; Mabel Jane Matthews, senior princess; Roberta Matthews, junior princess; Betty Jean Ady, guide; Mabel Ellerick, marshal; Marjorie Wright, chaplain; Ethel Dyer, recorder; Phyllis Hayes, senior custodian; Joyce Kummer, junior custodian; Bernice Pate, first messenger; Jean McGee, second messenger; Marilyn Robinson, third messenger; Cecil Beardorf, fourth messenger; Helen Hillabold, fifth messenger; Sally Cooley, inner guard; Maxine Wright, librarian; and Lillian Bartley, musician.

A beautiful floral degree was given the honored queen, followed by several appropriate remarks by distinguished guests including Mrs. A. J. Young, past grand guardian; Mr. Glenn Riddle, past associate grand guardian; Mrs. Riddle, past guardian; Mrs. Matthews, guardian; Mr. Robinson, associate guardian; and others. Letters of congratulation to Arlene from her mother and father who were ill and unable to attend were read.

Ruth Newton was presented with a beautiful past queen's ring, a gift of the Bethel and Dr. and Mrs. John Wilson. Ruth's term, though marred by lack of attendance because of gasoline rationing and the institution of the new Bethel at Glendale, was highly successful due to her untiring efforts. Installation ceremonies were held for Sally Cooley on November 10, and for Maxine Wright, Joan McGee, Lillian Bartley, and Helen Hillabold on December 8. A Christmas party followed practice for installation on December 15 when gifts were exchanged and Christmas carols were sung.

Helen Hillabold, Phyllis Hayes, Sally Cooley, Ruth Newton and Arlene Mickelson attended the installation ceremony of Bethel 18 at Roseburg on December 28. Mrs. R. Hebard conducted a very fine business session and a most encouraging financial report was read and the ladies were heartily thanked for their loyal support to the church during the last year.

MARGIE FREAMAN AND DALE E. BORGEN MARRY IN MUSKOGEE, OKLAHOMA

Of much interest in Roseburg is the announcement of the wedding of Miss Margie Freaman, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Freaman of Roseburg and formerly of St. Paul, Kansas, to Aviation Cadet Dale E. Borgen, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Borgen, of Roseburg, at six-thirty o'clock the evening of December 23, at Muskogee, Oklahoma, Chaplain B. W. Wright, of the Army Base Chapel of Muskogee performed the impressive ceremony.

Aviation Cadet and Mrs. Charles Stecher of Muskogee, former friends from Vancouver, Wash., were attendants.

The bride was charming in an aqua blue suit with brown accessories. Her corsage was a large orchid. The bridegroom and best man were in uniform.

Following a short honeymoon, Cadet and Mrs. Borgen returned to the air base to reside.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg high school and was later employed at the Roseburg telephone office and the last year has been employed in Portland. Cadet Borgen was graduated from Roseburg high school and was a student at University of Oregon, when he entered the army.

Mrs. Borgen will reside at Coffeyville, Kansas, where Cadet Borgen will continue his training, after receiving his commission as pilot in the army air force.

Mrs. Bernard A. Young Gives Charming Talk at Woman's Club

Mrs. Bernard A. Young, nee Lova Buchanan, was guest speaker at the Roseburg Woman's club Tuesday at a very lovely one-thirty o'clock dessert-luncheon at the clubhouse with Mrs. George M. Brown, hostess chairman, assisted by Mrs. Foster Butler and Mrs. J. D. Osborn. Assisting with the decorating and in serving were Mrs. H. B. Carter and Mrs. O. S. Chambers.

The tables were beautifully decorated with potted poinsettias and miniature Hawaiian figures and favors. Mrs. Homer Grow, music chairman, presided over the program and the invocation was given by the club chaplain, Mrs. Len B. Fishback.

Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, president, conducted the meeting and reports were given by Mrs. H. B. Carter, Mrs. A. S. Coen and Miss Marie Martens, after which Mrs. Grow very beautifully played two Hawaiian numbers.

Mrs. Louis Albert Banks, roll-call topic speaker on "The Bible" gave a very fine talk on "Have We Not All One Father?" She told of postwar days and what one might expect; basing her talk on the very successful Columbian exposition in Chicago in 1893, when churches from all over the world participated and cooperated to the fullest extent. She concluded her talk by telling the delightful story of the Rev. Dr. Cereira Mendes, Jewish Rabbi of N. Y., of the era of reconciliation of religious faiths and the rebuilding of the stone gates to the Garden of Eden. Mrs. Banks has brought a very delightful and instructive talk to every meeting of the club and members eagerly anticipate meetings to hear the next of the series to be presented by Mrs. Banks.

NEWS OF OUR MEN-WOMEN IN UNIFORM

A letter from Dean Garrett, radioman third class, U. S. Navy, that "we celebrated Thanksgiving day and my birthday in great style—just like the Fourth of July," has been received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Garrett, Glendale. A graduate of Glendale high school, with the class of 1940, Radioman Garrett enlisted in the navy December 13, 1941, a few days after his 18th birthday, and after boot training in San Diego, arrived in Hawaii about Feb. 1, 1942. He was sent to Midway June 3, 1942, where he spent 10 months at the naval air station. Since May, 1943, he has been serving aboard a battleship in the South Pacific and has not since returned to the mainland.

News has been received here of the graduation of Jean G. Edwards, hospital apprentice, second class, United States navy, of Umpqua, Oregon, from corpsman school of the United States Naval Training station at Farragut, Idaho, December 24. He has been transferred to the U. S. naval hospital at New Orleans, Louisiana. He has been given ward duty and the day he was so assigned he was confined in an adjoining ward with the mumps. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Edwards of Umpqua and has been in the service since August.

Richard E. Helmbolt, Roseburg, has completed his course of study and has been graduated as an aviation mechanic at the army air forces technical school, Amarillo army air field, Texas. He will be assigned to active duty with a Flying Fortress crew.

Queen Elizabeth was one of the first persons in history to wear glasses with a bridge fitting on the nose. Previously spectacles were made like a hinge, working on a pivot by the hand when used.
