News of 4-H CLUBS

Six girls of Riddle have organized a club to carry on projects in cooking II and III. Mrs. Mildred Coker will serve as leader for this group, which elected Minnie Elliott president, Ardith Atkins vice-president, and Betty Hausotter secretary. Other members of the club are Roberta Lane, Carol Smith and Darlene Lane.

Viola Aldrop, junior leader of the Sutherlin Cookery club, has sent in an enrollment of 14 girls, each of whom will carry projects in the first division of home cooking. They selected for their leader Mrs. M. C. Shorey and elected Betty Jones president, Ellen Holleman vice-president, and Evelyn Cornish secretary. The balance of the membership includes Evelyn Garman, Donna Lee McCauley, Ruby McCay, Agnes Pluegard, Barbara Pichette, Barbara Rose, Katherine Stowe, Myrtle Vansteenburg and Peggy Parrott.

A clothing club was organized in Riddle before Christmas, but due to the flu, the meetings were not begun until after the first of the year. Mrs. Theodore M. Nelson is leading this club which is carrying the second division in sewing. Members are Carlee Venice Kinsey president, Shirley Anne Nelson vice-president, Priscilla Mae Pruner secretary, Ora Elizabeth Clark and Barbara Rose Townsend.

Seven Sutherlin girls of the younger group decided they would like to carry the first division of sewing and so organized a 4-H club. They secured Mrs. R. E. Garman for their leader and elected Rosemary Spackman president, Anna Lou Allen vice-president, and Patsy Mardin secretary. Other members of the club are Barbara Brauning, Joan Clark, Annabel Liesinger and Annabel Mide.

County Club Agent E. A. Britton left yesterday for the coast section of the county, where he will be doing 4-H club work today and tomorrow. On this trip he will call at the Elkton, Loon Lake, Reedsport, Winchester bay, Smith River, Booth and Five-Mile schools. He will also confer with the leaders of the livestock clubs of Smith River and Loon Lake. He has several requests for help from leaders of other clubs, so he will contact each one while on this trip.

Motion picture programs to be given through this week by Mr. Britton will be held at the Camas Valley school Wednesday evening, Canyonville school Friday evening and in the Winston community Saturday evening. This picture program includes the special film prepared by Mr. Britton for showing in the county this year and also the excellent film, "Soldiers of the Soil."
