THREE GREAT ARTISTS TO BE PRESENTED BY COMMUNITY CONCERT ASSN.

Three great artists will be presented by the Roseburg Concert association during the next few months, according to an announcement made today by the president, Miss Gladys H. Strong.

The first concert will be Saturday evening, January 29, at which time the world-famous negro soprano, Dorothy Maynor, will be presented. Only members of the association will be privileged to attend, as no tickets will be sold for the concert.

The membership campaign for the association closed this afternoon at two o'clock and David Ferguson, New York representative of Columbia Concerts, Inc., reports a most successful drive. Officers of the association have expressed their sincere gratitude to the many volunteer workers obtaining the memberships, to make the presentation of concerts in Roseburg possible.

This is Roseburg's first really large undertaking in the musical world in many years and residents throughout the surrounding communities joined with local residents in making the campaign so successful. Mrs. Edwin G. Young is director at Oakland; Mrs. Cliff Parrot, Sutherland, and Mrs. G. R. Bates, Myrtle Creek.

The drive opened Monday evening at a dinner at the Hotel Umqua and was closed today. No further memberships may be taken until the 1945 membership drive opens.
