WOMAN'S SOCIETY HAS INTERESTING MEETING THURSDAY

The Woman's Society of the First Presbyterian church met Thursday for a delightful one-thirty o'clock dessert-luncheon at the church parlors with Mrs. Ida Bailey, hostess chairman, Mrs. Morris H. Roach, Mrs. C. H. Bailey and Mrs. James Pinkerton. The tables were decorated with red sprays of berries, matching tall tapers and crystal candleabra.

Mrs. O. S. Chambers, vice-president, presided, and Mrs. Homer W. Grow presented the program with Dr. Morris H. Roach giving the devotions on the Fourth Chapter of Cor., on the topic, "Christian Responsibility."

Mrs. W. M. Campbell gave the year book of prayer and introduced Mrs. Glenn Sanders, Medford, one of the vice-presidents of the Presbyterian Synodical, who talked on "The Chinese Christians," and "The Work Among the Italian, Japanese, Hebrews, Koreans and Hungarians."

Mrs. C. D. Fies presented the literature of the society and discussed goals for the coming year. Mrs. Sanders reported a recent Presbyterian Synodical meeting in Portland and discussed plans made there for the year.

Mrs. Homer Grow very ably discussed the social action and education of the state and local community. Reports of committees were given by Mrs. Clair K. Allen and Mrs. J. Roland Parker.

Dr. Roach reported that Rev. Kenneth Wilson would be guest speaker on "China" on the March meeting of the society.

The 1944 nominating committee appointed included: Mrs. Morris H. Roach, chairman, Mrs. Peter Crummett and Mrs. Harold Bellows.

Mrs. Roach presented the Community Concert association plan and urged cooperation of the members toward this movement. Mrs. Fred Fisher reported for the W. C. T. U. asking support of a plan for sponsoring an advertising campaign in the News-Review regarding issues to be supported by the W. C. T. U.

Those present were: Mrs. C. H. Bailey, Mrs. Ida Bailey, Mrs. James Pinkerton, Dr. and Mrs. Morris H. Roach and Betty; Mrs. J. Roland Parker, Mrs. O. S. Chambers, Mrs. George Sewell, Mrs. George M. Brown, Mrs. Peter Crummett, Mrs. Huldah Thomson, Miss Margaret Clapp, Mrs. Emma Lenox, Mrs. Barton Hellwell, Mrs. John Travis, Mrs. George Campbell, Miss Margaret Baldwin, Mrs. C. D. Fies, Mrs. Fred Fisher, Mrs. A. V. Laves, Mrs. E. L. Hininger, Mrs. Lake, Judy Bellows and two guests.

Mrs. Glenn Sanders, of Medford, and Miss Estelle Conover, a newcomer to Roseburg from Flint, Mich. Miss Conover is a sister of Mrs. C. H. Bailey of South Deer Creek and has recently purchased a residence in Roseburg to make her home.

The society will meet at a one-thirty o'clock dessert-luncheon February 10 at the church parlors with Mrs. J. Roland Parker as hostess assisted by Mrs. Margaret Rodgers, Mrs. A. E. Kent, Mrs. George Ware, Miss Jeannine Buick and Mrs. Harold Bellows.

Mrs. C. E. Roberts will review the two study books, "For All of Life" by Wiser and "The Silent Billion Speaks" by Laubach.

Mrs. Story Iles is entertained at a very delightful ten o'clock buffet supper at her home Wednesday evening honoring her husband on his birthday anniversary. Members of the ration board were guests and included: Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lozier, Miss Vivian Logsdon, Miss Carmen Abel and Miss Lois Kurtz and volunteer workers: Harold Dorothy Crocker, Mrs. V. W. Harpham and Mr. and Mrs. Les Hammock.

A birthday gift was presented by the group to Mr. Iles and visiting was enjoyed. A large birthday cake was cut and served with the supper. Colorful early spring flowers were arranged on the table and about the rooms.

Mrs. Frank Long entertained luncheon at dessert-luncheon club.

Lauristinus and daphne were used in attractive arrangements for the one-thirty o'clock dessert-luncheon given by Mrs. Frank Long at her lovely home on South Pine street Tuesday.

Covers were placed for Mrs. L. W. Wimberly, a guest, and Mrs. O. R. Hess, Mrs. E. A. Pearson, Mrs. Paul Geddes, Mrs. Fred Lockwood, Mrs. Maurice L. Hallmark, Mrs. E. E. Boring, Mrs. L. K. Fies and the hostess, Mrs. Long.

Contract bridge was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. Wimberly receiving a guest prize and Mrs. Geddes winning the club high score with Mrs. Pearson winning the second high score.

ROSEBURG WOMAN'S CLUB PLEDGES SUPPORT TO CONCERTS AT MEETING

The Roseburg Woman's club met Tuesday at the clubhouse to do Red Cross work under the direction of Mrs. M. A. Murdock and Mrs. E. L. Knapp.

Miss Helen Casey, of the program committee, presented David Ferguson, New York representative for Columbia Concerts, Inc., who told of the Community Concert association plan organized this week in Roseburg and announced that the first concert would be in Roseburg, January 29, at which time Dorothy Maynor, world-famous soprano, would be heard. The women of the club pledged their support to the movement and a number of the members have spent the week working as volunteer campaign workers. Two very beautiful recordings of Miss Maynor's were enjoyed.

The beautiful decorations were arranged by Mrs. H. O. Pargeter and Mrs. Velle Broadway and the members voted to have the two ladies arrange their special flower arrangements at the first meeting of the club every month, instead of the second meeting. Mrs. Pargeter's and Mrs. Broadway's artistic arrangements are greatly enjoyed by the members and their guests.

Mrs. D. W. Halliwell gave a talk on the Infantile Paralysis drive and a sum was voted to be given by the club and a collection was taken at the meeting to be turned over to the drive fund.

Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, president, presented Mrs. Louis Albert Banks, who gave an exceptionally interesting roll-call talk on the Bible on the subject, "Isaiah's Mystery Chapter." Mrs. Banks told of spending years in the search of an explanation of Isaiah 18 and that her attention was brought to the verse in 1935 with Italy's conquest of Ethiopia; the second mention she noticed was in a May 1936 issue of the News-Review and she added additional knowledge to this subject from an article in 1936 published in the Liberty magazine, but the final information was found by her in an old book, which she found in an antique shop in Salem, which was published in 1838. All of Mrs. Banks' talks on the Bible are of exceptional interest and are deeply appreciated by the group.

Those present were: Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, Mrs. Louis Albert Banks, Miss Helen Casey, Mrs. W. H. Richardson, Mrs. S. L. Dillard, Mrs. J. A. Hart, Mrs. H. B. Carter, Mrs. O. S. Chambers, Miss Marie Martens, Mrs. A. J. Geddes, Mrs. C. H. Bailey, Mrs. H. O. Pargeter, Mrs. Velle Broadway, Miss Jennie Jorey, Mrs. George M. Brown, Mrs. Foster Butner, Mrs. M. A. Murdock, Mrs. L. Kohlhaugen, Sr., Mrs. R. W. Marsters, Mrs. E. L. Knapp, Mrs. Washington Hughes, Mrs. Homer Grow, Miss Estelle Conover, Mrs. A. S. Coen, Mrs. Walter Good, Mrs. George K. Quine, Mrs. I. B. Riddle and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

The club will meet February 1 at a one-thirty o'clock dessert-luncheon at the clubhouse. Mrs. K. D. Lytle, prominent member of the club, will review the books "The Importance of Living" and "My Country and My People" by Lin Yutang, foremost living Chinese philosopher, and she will tell of some of his recent articles. Yutang, who is now 47 years of age, is at present residing in New York City. Every member is asked to bring either their baby picture or the first picture ever taken of them. They have also been asked not to show other members the pictures before the meeting.

MOTOR CORPS HAS ENJOYABLE SOCIAL AT BAILEY HOME

Mrs. H. L. Bailey very graciously entertained the Motor Corps at her home in Laurelwood Tuesday evening. Following a short business meeting and a social hour, Mrs. Bailey served lovely refreshments at a table centered with an arrangement of African violets and flanked by tall red, white and blue tapers.

Covers were placed for: Mrs. L. W. Wimberly, Mrs. Guy Cordon, Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Miss Agnes Plichford, Miss Ila Laubach, Miss Margaret N. Johnson, Mrs. Florence Waer, Mrs. Roy Catching and the hostess, Mrs. Bailey.

PATCH AND CHAT CLUB HAS INTERESTING MEETING WEDNESDAY

With her gun and a bandoleer of ammunition slung across her back, a girl member of a band of Russian guerrillas operating in the Ukraine takes time out from potting Germans to milk a cow seized from the enemy. Milk was for wounded guerrillas.

GROUP ENJOYS DELIGHTFUL MEETING

SUTHERLIN, Jan. 21.—The Girls and Boys Scout troops are finishing nicely with the first requirements of Folk dancing (square dancing). The dances are being held in the Caribou hall through the courtesy of Robert Thomas. The dancers were agreeably surprised last Saturday evening when Mr. Carl Timm of Wilbur appeared and volunteered to play the piano for them. He was accompanied on the violin by the Vern Spire and the two made lively music all evening. Both Mr. Timm and Mr. Squire play with ease, any of the tunes necessary for this type of dancing. The instructor, LeRoy Jones, announced that he thought the young people were good enough dancers to have their party. It has been set for about the 22 of January, and will be an old fashioned dancing party with a basket supper served afterward.

BRUCE LATTIN, JR. CELEBRATES FIRST BIRTHDAY AT PARTY

Bruce Lattin, Jr., celebrated his first birthday at his home at 928 South Main street at a very delightful birthday dinner. A beautiful decorated birthday cake, holding one tiny candle, was cut and served. Lovely gifts were presented to the guest of honor.
