Rep. Magnuson Is Victim of Theft

SEATTLE, Jan. 24—(AP)—British Columbia police are investigating the possibility enemy agents might have been responsible for the Saturday theft of a confidential government communication, reports of hearings and personal papers from Rep. Warren G. Magnuson (D-Wash.) in Vancouver, B. C., the congressman revealed last night.

The theft took place Saturday morning when entrance was forced into Magnuson's car while he ate breakfast in a Vancouver hotel. Magnuson described the loss as more provoking than serious, saying the communication from Secretary of Navy Knox to Vice Admiral Frank Fletcher, commander of the western sea frontier at Adak, Alaska, was "personal and confidential, but it was not of great military value."

Season's Ticket Sale Permits 4th Roseburg Concert

The Community Concert association membership campaign drive closed Saturday at 2 o'clock and Miss Gladys H. Strong, president, has announced that drive was so successful that four great artists will be guaranteed to be presented in concert to the membership, instead of three concerts, as previously pledged.

The concerts will be held at the Junior high school auditorium, the first of which will be the world-prominent negro soprano, Dorothy Maynor, who will present her concert Saturday evening, January 29.

The two March concerts will be presented by Patricia Travers, 18-year old American violinist and motion picture actress, and the second will feature Todd Duncan, famous negro baritone, who played leads in the motion picture, "Porgy and Bess" and "Cabin in the Sky." Duncan will give a part of the "Porgy and Bess" program on his concert.

The season's closing concert will be presented in April by 21-year-old Walter Hautzler, pianist. No tickets will be sold at any concert and only the membership will be privileged to attend.

The Community Concert association is Douglas county's first attempt to form such an organization for the purpose of sponsoring music by famous artists. David Ferguson, New York representative for Columbia Concerts Inc., spent all of last week here assisting in arrangements for the association. Miss Helen Casey and Mrs. Charles A. Brand headed the membership drive, which was brought to a successful conclusion Saturday.

Douglas Unit of Credit Association to Meet

The annual meeting of the Douglas county section of the Southern Oregon Production Credit association will be held at the circuit courtroom of the courthouse in Roseburg at 1:30 p. m. Thursday, Jan. 27. It was announced today by Bren H. Starcher, secretary.

Similar section meetings are being held at Medford and Coquille.

All farmers and their wives are invited to attend the meeting regardless of whether they are at present members of the association.

The meeting marks the 10th anniversary of the association and the program will feature a talk by J. W. Bradley, secretary of the Production Credit corporation of Spokane. Present and future problems of the association and the production credit system will be open for discussion. A director for the Jackson county section will be elected.
