Globe-Encircling Flight Exciting to Ex-Roseburg Man

Carl Lindsey, Jr., formerly of Melrose and Roseburg, now a field representative for the Lockheed Aircraft corporation, has just completed a four-month trip filled with excitement, according to word received by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Midland of West Roseburg.

Lindsey, engaged in checking the corporation's bases in various war theaters, encircled the globe, visiting stations in Brazil, Egypt, India, China and the South Pacific. He saw the Taj Mahal in India, was in Calcutta during the famine and flood, flew over the Himalaya range from India to China, met General Stilwell and Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek, receiving a gift from the latter, and visited South Pacific battle stations.

Lindsey formerly assisted his father in operating the Melrose store and for a time operated a service station in Roseburg. His parents now reside at Santa Monica, Calif.

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 3.—(special)—Capt. Beatrice Ringgold, head recruiter for the Wacs with the Oregon district, will visit Roseburg Feb. 11 as the first stop on a trip to five upstate cities to confer with civilian and army War recruiters.

It is to explain the need for increased enlistments and newly-opened recruitment plans that Capt. Ringgold is making the trip.
