HEALTH ASSOCIATION HAS MEETING TUESDAY EVENING AT FISHER HOME

The Douglas County Health association met Tuesday evening at the home of the president, Mrs. Fred Fisher, who reported the purchase of five $100 bonds, Series E, by the association, as a reserve fund to be used following the war. A letter from Dr. Bellinger, superintendent of the State T. B. Sanitarium at Salem, was received, acknowledging receipt of gifts sent to Douglas county patients at Christmas by the association. They were appropriately wrapped and mailed by Mrs. George Ware.

The educational committee appointed by Mrs. Fisher included: Mrs. George Ware, Mrs. D. T. Meyers, Mrs. A. B. Gardner and Mrs. Lydia Hooper.

Miss May Murphy, county nutrition chairman, reported materials on nutrition had been sent schools throughout the county by Mrs. Lula Gorrell, county school superintendent.

Mrs. Willbur Culp reported the following list of books had been selected for the traveling library of health books, "Everyday Nursing for the Every-day Home," "Improvised Equipment in the Home Care of the Sick," "Diabetic Manual," "1000 Questions and Answers on Tuberculosis," "Rules for Recovery From Pulmonary Tuberculosis," "New Patterns in Sex Teachings," "We the Parents," "Psychiatry for the Curious," "Plain Words," "Being Born," "Getting Ready to be a Father," "Babies Are Human Beings," "Getting Ready to be a Mother."

Mrs. Ethel Littler, health nurse, formerly with Coos county, spoke on the value of the library of health books, organized in Coos county. The books were recommended by the consultant in health education for the state board of health, the executive secretary of the Oregon Tuberculosis association and the secretary of the division of social hygiene education of the University of Oregon Medical school.

A report was given on the free loan closet of sick room equipment. Several articles, such as rubber sheets, ice caps, crutches and the hospital bed are loaned out at present, but other articles are available and may be borrowed from the association without cost. Telephone or call at the county health office for further information.

Mrs. Fisher announced the date of meetings changed from the last Thursday in the month to the last Friday.

Following the meeting an interesting "Nutrition" film "V-Men" was shown to the association by the Douglas county health nurses, Mrs. Mary Barrett and Mrs. Ethel Littler.
