MR. AND MRS. MELTON HONORED AT DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR RECENTLY

A mile long line of cars plowed through driving rain to the large country home of the Harlan Meltons Tuesday, the occasion being a combination wedding home and charivari in honor of Ben Melton and his bride, who recently arrived from Gardner Field, Calif. The Ben Meltons have been married for five months, but the wedding trip home had to be delayed until the bridegroom could obtain a furlough from the army. He is stationed at Taft, Calif., but has had notice of a transfer.

Mrs. Ben Melton was Miss Dorothy Newton, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Newton of Bakersfield, Calif. She is a popular member of the younger set of that city. The bridegroom was reared in the South Deer Creek community and was graduated from Roseburg high school and later was employed by the Douglas County Forest Protective association until he enlisted in the army.

Before the guests came into the house, they gave Mr. and Mrs. Ben Melton a car-horn serenade, and following greetings and introductions to the bride, the couple served charivari treats and later Mrs. Harlan Melton served dainty refreshments buffet style.

An entertainment feature was a group of songs tailored to fit the occasion by Miss Eva Anne Hall and Miss Evelyn Hunter of South Deer creek.

Guests included: Edward Karcher, Mr. and Mrs. Luke Patterson and daughters; Clifford Jones, Conrad Jones, Walter Hatfield, Morley Huston, Hazel Cannon and granddaughter, Eva Anne Hall; Mrs. Francis Tummertson and son, William, and daughter, Mavis Ann; Charley Patterson, Mrs. Harry Collison, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Trussell, of Umpqua; Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Melton and daughter, Wynona; Miss Evelyn Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. T. Melton, of Roberts creek, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stritzke and sons, Richard, Jr., and Robert, and daughters, Lorane and Lois; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kelly and daughter, Jean; Mr. and Mrs. Custer Laurence, Mr. and Mrs. William Mills and son, Bradley; Mr. and Mrs. William Bailey and son, Charles; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Melton and daughter, Emma Mae; Stewart Hall and son, Robert; Mrs. William Melton, Sr., grandmother of the bridegroom; Mrs. Kathleen Weber, of Roberts creek, and Mr. and Mrs. William Melton and son, Charles, and daughter, Wilma.

Mrs. Leroy Hiatt very graciously entertained a group of faculty wives at a charming one-thirty o'clock dinner-luncheon at her attractive home Friday afternoon at a pink and blue shower party in compliment to Mrs. Delmar Ramsdell.

MRS. LEROY HIATT ENTERTAINS AT CHARMING PARTY FOR MRS. RAMSDELL

A very fine meeting of the Roseburg W. C. T. U. was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Otto Olson at 112 Broadway street with Mrs. Annie L. Russell, president, in charge.

Mrs. Charles A. Edwards presented a very beautiful devotion-al, followed by Mrs. R. A. Feenstra giving a partial review of the book, "The Wrecking of the 18th Amendment," which she gave to the W. C. T. U. from her mother, Mrs. Ella McCoy.

POET'S CORNER

COMPLETE VICTORY

By ALDEN HARNESSE
Where flags of the United Nations toss
On winds from Northern Star to Southern Cross,
A deeper and diviner love for right,
Which governs men and sends them forth to fight
For home and country and for law and light,
In countless people every day and hour
Awakens forces that shall break the power
Of Germany and Nippon and subdue
Within these countries all aggression, too,
Till in the future nevermore shall
Thor
Despoil and tyrannize the world with war.
