PUBLIC INVITED TO ROSE SCHOOL BENEFIT PROGRAM FRIDAY NIGHT

A most cordial invitation has been extended to the public to enjoy a delightful benefit program at the Rose school house Friday evening at 8 o'clock to be sponsored by the school P.T. A.

In addition to vocal solos by Cecil Black and accordion numbers by Claren Blake, two delightful comedies will be presented by the fathers of the students.

The play, "The Charleston Tragedy" will be presented by Vernon Keel as little Nell; Mr.

Newport as Joe Podunk; Cecil Black as the father; Bill Adair as the mother; George Churchill as the villain, and Louis Neuriter as the parson.

The second comedy, "Ever Upwards" will be presented by Mervin Brown as master of ceremonies; M. M. Nelson and Keith Phillips as the reformers and E. A. Pearson as the child.

Everyone interested has been cordially invited to enjoy the delightful program. There will be no admission charge, as a free will offering will be taken to raise money for the P.T. A. fund.

A social hour will follow the program, after which refreshments will be served.
