INTERESTING GRANGE MEETING IS HELD

Kellogg Grange, No. 811 met at the hall Wednesday with Master Dayton Minter in charge and all officers present but two. Past Master Cornelius Miller gave the obligation to Mrs. Edith Mode and Mrs. Emma Madison. Home Economic Chairman Rita Minter requested all members to attend the club meeting Feb. 17. An interesting program was carried out by Lecturer Helen Miller, consisting of group singing, led by Paula Anderson, with Elizabeth Fisher at the piano. This was followed by a quiz concerning the boys whose names appear on our service flag. Later a "scramby-ambly" contest was enjoyed by all. Delicious refreshments were served by Virginia Myers and Milo Bullock to the 32 members and four children present.
