CATHOLIC BENEFIT CARD PARTY IS SEASON'S LARGEST SOCIAL AFFAIR

Circles No. 1 and No. 2 of St. Joseph's Catholic Altar society sponsored the largest benefit affair of the season, Tuesday evening, when they invited the public to enjoy a very charming George Washington party at the Catholic school auditorium. More than one hundred and fifty were present for the affair. The affair was not only one of the finest events of the season, but was a decided financial success.

The auditorium of the school was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The main buffet table was centered with red and white carnations and tall red, white and blue tapers with small flags on standards extending the entire length of the table. The card tables were covered with cloths and napkins of red, white and blue to carry out the beautiful patriotic theme.

The party opened with the entire assembly singing, "The Star Spangled Banner" with Miss Annaloris Ward at the piano.

Bridge, five-hundred and pinocle were enjoyed with Mrs. J. A. Harding, Mrs. Ruby Scallon and Mrs. Joseph Felt in charge of the tables respectively. In line with the patriotic motif, war stamps were distributed at each table to be used as individual prizes.

Prizes for high scores were awarded to Mrs. R. D. Coen, contract bridge; R. R. Harding, five-hundred and Father Carol, pinocle.

The members of the two Circles have especially expressed their appreciation to the merchants of Roseburg, who so very generously donated fifteen very beautiful and novel door prizes, which were awarded to fifteen guests. Father William Coughlan had charge of presenting the door prizes to the winners.

A special feature of the evening was the selling of a very beautifully decorated cake, made by Mrs. Paul Jenkins, and which sold for a large amount, adding to the proceeds of the party. The cake was won by Mrs. John Nyland. This part of the program was in charge of Mrs. Geraldine Sheehy and Miss Virginia Cour.

Mrs. and Mrs. Harold Sanders, who celebrated their silver wedding anniversary on that day, were honored by Miss Annaloris Ward playing a beautiful piano selection.

Delicious refreshments were served buffet style, following the card plays. During the evening, home-made candies were passed to the players.

Mrs. Loren L. Miller, Mrs. Edmund L. Dolan and Mrs. George Hammer acted as hostesses for the affair and were assisted by Mrs. William Stotewig, Mrs. Fred Fitzman, Miss Kay Ward, Mrs. Ruby Scallon, Miss Virginia Cour, Mrs. Geraldine Sheehy and Mrs. E. F. Geraldine.

Mrs. William Amiot, Mrs. Paul Jenkins and Miss Colette Langenberg were general chairmen of the party and the three ladies have expressed their appreciation to all of their committees, as well as the many guests making the affair so successful and enjoyable, and in turn, the three ladies are being congratulated by the members for their untiring work and effort to arrange the affair.

ENGAGEMENT OF HELEN JOHNSON AND J. R. STICKNEY TOLD

Announcement was made Sunday, February 20, at the Alpha Xi Delta chapter house in Corvallis of the engagement of Miss Helen Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gunnar Johnson of Melrose, to Judson R. Stickney, U. S. army air corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stickney of Lancaster, Calif.

The announcement was made by corsages of house colors and small scrolls bearing the names of the couple, placed by each guest at the dinner table.

Miss Johnson was graduated from Roseburg high school in 1941 and attended Oregon State for two years. She is now attending business school in Portland. Mr. Stickney was graduated from Oregon State in March 1943 and is a member of Chi Phi fraternity. He is now stationed at Muroc, Calif.

No date has been set for the wedding.

POTLUCK DINNER IS ENJOYED AT KEEL HOME ON WEDNESDAY NIGHT

A very delightful potluck dinner was enjoyed Wednesday evening at the attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Keel. Members of the Rose P. T. A. Benefit entertainment cast and their wives were invited to enjoy the occasion.

A beautiful lace cloth covered the table, which was centered by an attractive azalea plant and flanked by tall patriotic-colored candles. Those enjoying the evening with Mr. and Mrs. Keel included: Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Newport, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Neutrier, Mr. and Mrs. George Churchill, Mr. and Mrs. William Adair, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Black, Mr. and Mrs. Merton Brown, Mr. and Mrs. M. Nelson and Miss Ruth Snoddy.
