DIAL LOG

By SUSAN

There's lots of good entertainment for you on Sundays, and now is the time to enjoy it. Pretty soon the sun will be out and your conscience will job you if you aren't out digging in the Victory Garden. So take a "Death Ride" with the Shadow at 2:30 and enjoy First Nighter at 3. This week's play, "Plenty of Room," deals with army wives' troubles. One more Sunday after this and Mr. First Nighter starts his show-going on Wednesday's at 8:30, so he won't interfere with your spading and weed-pulling during the spring and summer. This week's Cleveland Symphony—at 6—will be guest-conducted by Rudolph Ringwald, Joseph Knitzer, once a child prodigy and now a concert violinist of note, will be guest artist. He's soloist for Beethoven's concerto for violin and orchestra in D Major. On the lighter side—Jack Benny at 8:30 has two guests, Larry Adler, harmonica virtuoso, and Eddie Cantor, of the acrobatic eyes and family fame. Dennis Day sings "To Heaven"—and boy, oh boy, how he can sing. These shows, however, are all for Sunday, so at the moment turn your attention to Chicago Theatre of the Air's streamlined "Blossom Time." It's the indestructible, and even if you don't like La Claire, Bagliore or O. K. and the music is lovely, California Melodies is a favorite of ours too, and we'll be back in Flash (on Monday) with another dash of doings on the dial at 1490. P. S. Flash news—a new show, Wide Horizons, will be heard Sundays at 1. Don't know much about it, but it's something to do with planes.
