ADVENTISTS HOLD POTLUCK SUPPER

A seven o'clock potluck supper was enjoyed by the Adventists Thursday evening in the school auditorium on Military street and Umpqua avenue. The affair was sponsored for the purpose of having a general get-together of all Adventists in this vicinity. The Dorcas ladies were in charge of serving and arrangements.

A varied program followed the supper. Elder Ernston, the new pastor, presented the needs of the school plant, where-upon several hundred dollars were raised to provide the necessary improvements. Emil Werner, school principal, acted as master of ceremonies.

The students of the school presented the first number by lining up and singing their new school song written to the snappy tune of Anchors Away. One of the teachers, Mrs. A. D. Buthers, then explained to the many patrons and friends, the purpose of the new school annual to be called The Umpqua. Immediately the youngsters were turned loose on the audience to get subscriptions.

The main event of the evening was a well-coached debate on the subject, Resolved that for the average family, Oregon is a better place in which to live than is the state of California. Mary Koehn, Mel the affirmative side and Marjorie Leinbaum was captain of the negative team. Principal Werner acted as chairman and A. D. Buthers served as judges. Each speaker was allowed three minutes and each team five minutes for rebuttal.

Mr. Werner entertained the group while the judges were making their decision. The audience voiced its approval when the judges announced that the vote of two to one for the affirmative, or the Oregon country had won by a close decision.

The next on the program was a presentation of a gift consisting of a furlough bag and a money belt to Everett Perry by Pastor Ernston. Everett is the third son of the Ellis Perry family to be called into national service. Vale and Vernon, having preceded him. Max Barkhurst and Leslie Smith were also honored for their response to the country. Mr. Barkhurst has been assigned to the naval training station at Farragut, Idaho. Mr. Smith has received notice to appear for his medical examination and Kenneth Blake of Sutherlin has just recently joined the army air forces.

The evening concluded by the younger people choosing up sides for a volleyball game.

BOND COMMITTEE IS HONORED AT DINNER

GLENDAL—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Harvey graciously entertained the Azalea Glendale fourth war loan bond committee with a turkey dinner in the Glendale I. O. O. F. hall Friday evening, February 25, at eight p. m., culminating the extremely successful bond drive, of which Mr. Harvey ably served as chairman.

The bond drive was jointly sponsored by members of the Azalea grange and the Glendale order of the Eastern Star, with both organizations cooperating under the leadership of Mr. Harvey.

Table decorations in keeping with the patriotic occasion included a lovely centerpiece featuring an interesting arrangement of flags within a bowl which was circled with red, white and blue tapers.

Following the delicious dinner, which was prepared and served by members of the O. E. S. social club, the guests spent the remainder of the evening visiting.
