Vallees Patch up Rift; Myrna Loy, Husband Separate

LOS ANGELES, Mar. 8.—

(AP)—Rudy Vallees' lawyer says the singer-band leader and his bride have cancelled divorce plans announced Monday.

Attorney Ray Sandier announced yesterday that the Vallees are dwelling happily together again and issued the following statement in behalf of the musician:

"After considering the circumstances and in view of the fact that we are very much in love, Betty Jane and I have decided to continue with our marriage."

Film Actress Betty Jane Greer, 19, and Vallees, 41, now a coast guard lieutenant, were married last Dec. 2.

NEW YORK, Mar. 8.—(AP)—Film Actress Myrna Loy, 38, has separated from her husband, John D. Hertz, Jr., New York advertising executive, and soon will seek a divorce, her studio announces. The studio said the separation was amicable, adding that Miss Loy would return to Hollywood to appear in pictures. The couple was married in June, 1942.

LOS ANGELES, Mar. 8.—(AP)—Film Actor Mickey Rooney's draft board re-classified him 2-A yesterday.

He was so classified last spring but was rejected by the army for unspecified reasons. His mother, Mrs. Nell Pankey, said at the time that he had a "heart flutter and high blood pressure." Rooney, 22 and single, is the divorced husband of Actress Ava Gardner.
