SKILLET CLUB MEMBERS SERVE LUNCHEON

SUTHERLIN—The Skillet club members of the 4-H received a great deal of praise from the appreciative guests at their first luncheon. It was served to some of the elementary teachers of the Sutherlin school. Their menu was carefully planned and although there were some disconcerting absences, with resultant difficulties, they were all taken care of by last minute adjustments. The boys derived a great deal of pleasure both from planning this activity, and from its successful culmination.

Horse Marine

"I'm Captain Jinks of the Horse Marines, I feed my horse on pork and beans . . ."

When that old song was written, the idea of "horse marines" was considered very funny, because a sea-soldier a-saddle seemed pretty much of a fish out of water. But there are plenty of them today, like the marine pictured above. He's Pfc. John R. Shaner of May's Landing, N. J., a member of the USMC mounted patrol on a vital Caribbean base.

Site of International University

This makes a total of 784 articles finished and returned to Roseburg. Considering the size of the Yoncalla unit and the few ladies taking part, this is an exceptionally fine report.
