Enlists on 20th Birthday

Miss Ruth Snoddy

News-Review engraving

Miss Ruth Snoddy, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Snoddy, of Roseburg, who enlisted in the Spars on her 20th birthday anniversary, March 1, 1944, in Portland, has received her orders to report for duty. Miss Snoddy, accompanied by her mother, left last night for Portland, where she will leave today with a group of enlistees for Palm Beach, Florida, to report for basic training.

Miss Snoddy has been a resident of Roseburg all of her life. She attended Rose school and was graduated from senior high school in 1942. She worked a year for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company and was a student for a term at Linfield college, McMinnville. She is an attractive and talented member of the younger set of this city. She has one brother, Ensign Robert C. Snoddy, of the U. S. Navy air forces, who is stationed in the Pacific war area.

Easter Program Is Charming Affair of Woman's Club Tuesday

A very beautiful Easter program was presented by Mrs. W. M. Campbell, chairman, for the Roseburg Woman's club at a delightful one-thirty o'clock dessert-luncheon served Tuesday at the clubhouse by Mrs. A. S. Coen, Mrs. J. A. Hart, Mrs. F. W. Chase and Mrs. Ella Fenley.

The tables, decorated by Mrs. H. O. Pargeter and Mrs. Velle Broadway, were very beautiful with arrangements of heather, daphne and tall pink tapers. Large bouquets of saxifraga, colorful kale and heather were used about the rooms.

The invocation was given by the club chaplain, Mrs. Len B. Fishback, with the president, Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, in charge of the meeting. Reports were given by Miss Marie Martens, secretary, and Mrs. E. L. Knapp, Red Cross club chairman.

Mrs. Homer W. Grow very graciously introduced the program chairman, Mrs. W. M. Campbell, who gave a short Easter talk, followed by the program including: piano numbers by Mrs. Clyde Beard; vocal solos by Mrs. H. W. Pattison and the Easter messages brought to the group by Mrs. Louis Albert Banks and Mrs. A. J. Geddes.

The musical numbers were very beautifully presented and Mrs. Banks used as her subject, "Handfuls of Purpose." She opened her talk by telling the story from the Bible of Ruth and Naomi and then telling the story of crucifixion and the resurrection. During her talk, she quoted by memory the two beautiful poems, "Indifference" by G. A. Studdert-Kennedy and "The First Easter" by Nancy Turner. Adding greatly to her fine talk, was the exhibiting of pictures and articles, which Mrs. Banks has in her collection of fine historic relics, which she brought back to this country from her trip to Rome and to the Holy Land. Mrs.

MRS. PAUL MORGAN IS HOSTESS TO T. N. T. CLUB TUESDAY EVENING

The St. Patrick's motif was beautifully carried out for the eight o'clock dessert-supper given by Mrs. Paul Morgan Tuesday evening, when she entertained the T. N. T. club at her attractive home.
