Weekly Bowling Chatter

Interest this week centered on the city championship series.

Lund's Radio took first place in team play with a score of 2989. Grimm's Grocery keggers were second with 2876.

Bruton's Shoe Repair was a close third with 2853.

Some extra special firing was evidenced by the way in which bowlers picked up splits during the close contests.

Monday night Del Carr picked up the 46 split, Parkinson cleaned up the 3-10 and K. Phillips brought in the 5-6-10. The clean up of bad leaves continued Wednesday with F. Griffin, Glenn Wellman, Maney Porter, and B. Anderson each picking up the 3-10 combination.

Grant Phillips held high game score with 237 and D. Baker had high series, 676.

In the women's league, high score was rolled by Rachael Lehn, who turned in 197, and high series went to B. Ferguson with 474. (Adv.)
