He Rates A-1 With Young China

It's no wonder the Chinese think highly of Sgt. William H. Hancock, left above, of Rockhill, S. C. Offered a trip home from the China-Burma-India theater, under the policy which gives a man a furlough after two years service, he turned it down. His reason: he wants to chase the Japs out of China and get the war over. He's pictured with a Chinese buddy.

BETTER TAKE A CHANCE
We begin to wonder if all the confusion down at Washington is due to ignorant blundering bureaucrats; or if maybe they do know what they are doing. Certainly, if this is a "planned confusion", there are more brains in Washington than we had supposed.

HOW MANY TURKEYS FOR YOU?
Just in case you didn't get the reports, turkey growers have indicated that they will raise 2% more turkeys this year than last. (Federal goals are slightly less.) Coast states will have about the same number. For the United States, about 8% more breeder hens, and for the coast states 17% more hens than last year. (Douglas County probably more than double).

WATERING TROUGHS
Can you build a watering trough for your poultry that won't leak? We have tried it many's the time. We have even hired carpenters and been disappointed.

ONE A DAY FOR THE COW
Umpqua Milkmaker is, and always has been, one of the best dairy feeds on the market. We are adding a new product, "RATION PLUS", to Umpqua Milkmaker now, just to make sure that Umpqua Milkmaker will continue to be the best the market offers.

GOOD NEWS FOR FIDO
Has your cupboard been bare of a bone for Fido? We have received a shipment of "Supermeal Dog Food" at the Mill. It has raw meat and bone and the pup will sure like it. You will also like the price—$1.10 for a big ten pound sack. Might get a package of flea powder for him at the same time.

WE STILL NEED SACKS
Just because the turkeys have gone to market doesn't mean we no longer need the empty feed sacks. We need them by the thousands. Turn them into cash before the mice make them useless to you or us. Low egg prices make it hard to pay the feed bill? Those empty sacks will help both you and us.

ANOTHER OPA MESS
For the time being, we will be forced to discontinue the sale of corn, except as included in mash or scratch. This is due to the latest regulations by OPA, which are expected to curtail the movement of corn in the usual manner.

BETTER TAKE A CHANCE
We have some at the Mill that are guaranteed not to leak. Also some feeders that will save all the high priced feed you put in to them. These troughs are both four feet long, and will accommodate a lot of chicks or poult. Priced at $1.75 each. Sure you could buy the material and build them yourself for less. (If you didn't have anything else to do.)

We hope they know what they are doing. And we hope everybody will plant all the certified corn they can find room for. Maybe we could get independent of these guys.
