hope to get supplies into China in sufficient volume to enable the Chinese to continue the war.

We know the Japs have a lot of strength they haven't used.
 Maybe they are beginning to use it now.

THERE is an interesting political note in the dispatches.
 Churchill is to address the (British) nation Sunday—"amid," the dispatches say, "a rising clamor on both sides of the Atlantic for clarification of the allied war aims."

That is to say, people both here and in Britain want INCREAS-INGLY to know what we're fighting for.

Outside the vague and in many places hazy Atlantic Charter, we've never been told.

AS nearly as this writer has been able to learn, the U. S. soldier's No. 1 war aim (in Europe) is to "lick Hitler so we can get home."

It seems to be quite different as to Japan. Most of the members of the American armed forces to whom this writer has talked recognize clearly our interest in the Pacific war.

They know, as do all of us, that we must lick the Jap OR ELSE.

THE fighting in Italy remains bitter and inconclusive.
 The Germans are making of Cassino a Stalingrad of their own, and there can be little doubt that the stubborn fight they are waging there is impressing the German people tremendously—as the fight to the death at Stalingrad impressed and hardened the will of the Russian people.

We outsiders, of course, are in no position to criticize, because we don't know enough of the facts to enable us to criticize CON-STRUCTIVELY or even intelligently. But, for all we are able to see, the bloody fighting in Italy hasn't accomplished much.

(We must also remember that everything we start can't turn out brilliantly successful. Even the mighty Russians are stopped in their tracks from time to time and have to back off and try somewhere else.)

AS to the air fighting in Germany, note this:

There are times when the German fighters hardly rise from the ground to meet our bombers, preferring to take the pounding rather than to take to the air. At other times, they take to the air in force and fight bitterly.

The point involved is that in our air war in Germany we have TWO objectives. One is to inflict as much damage as possible on the German war machine. The other, possibly now the more important of the two, is to force the German fighters up so that we can shoot them down.

Destruction, or at least complete weakening, of the German air force is necessary before we start the big invasion.

WE get an interesting slant on that objective in dispatches from Sweden which assert that in

GIVE TO THE RED CROSS

By Charles V. Stanton

WE do not believe it necessary to "sell" you on the work of the American Red Cross. We believe you know how important the work of that great agency of helpfulness and mercy is in the present period of emergency. We are convinced you are all willing to help; willing to give liberally to the Red Cross War Fund campaign now in progress.
 But solicitors report that many people do not realize what is expected of them. For many years we have been asked to contribute $1 each year as a Red Cross membership. Many people apparently have the opinion that such an amount is all that is now being asked of them.

The truth is that we must give far more than ever before if the American Red Cross is to continue the efficiency of its work and is to effectively provide the services expected of it and which we, individually, desire that it perform.

Last year the American Red Cross asked $125,000,000 to maintain its war work. This year it is requesting $200,- 000,000. In other words, we are asked to give almost twice as much as we contributed last year, which, in turn, was several times the $1 membership fee sought in years before the war.

Consequently in place of gifts of $1, our contributions should be limited only by our ability to pay, for the Red Cross can make use of every dollar we furnish.

The two hundred million dollar goal is a bare minimum.
 It is the amount necessary to carry on the work to which the Red Cross already is pledged. If we oversubscribe the amount, the Red Cross will be able to add to its services.

Ninety cents from every one dollar you give to the Red Cross is utilized for the benefit of the men and women in the armed forces. It goes to maintain services in combat areas, in hospitals, for men on furloughs and leaves in war theaters, and in relief of distressed families of service men.

There is no use to enumerate to you the many services maintained by the Red Cross. You are familiar with them and you know their importance. But perhaps you have not considered the greatly increased burden which has been placed upon the Red Cross.

When we were asked last year to contribute the sum of $125,000,000, there were four and one-half million men in the armed services. Today, the men and women in uniform number approximately eleven million. With ninety per cent of our Red Cross money going to the aid of the military personnel, the requested budget appears small.

Yet two hundred million dollars is a lot of money. But we are spending $175,000 per minute to prosecute the war—$250,000,000 per day. We are spending more in 24 hours to destroy, kill and maim than we are asked to furnish for one whole year for a program of comfort and humanitarianism.

Douglas county's share in the national quota is $23,000.
 Last year we were asked for $12,900. Our contributions are entirely voluntary. We can either oversubscribe or under-subscribe our quota. If too many counties fail in their responsibility the Red Cross will lack the funds it needs to carry out its minimum program. Thus it is squarely up to us to meet our goal if we want the Red Cross to efficiently represent us in providing the services we so sincerely desire for our men and women in uniform.

If you have not yet contributed to the Red Cross War Fund, make your gift as large as you can. If you have given already and can give more, the Red Cross solicitor in your community will be glad to receive a second contribution.

our last attack on Berlin this week we gave RADIO WAH-NING to the Germans that we were coming.

If that is true, we were deliberately INVITING German fighters to gang up on us, feeling certain of our ability to shoot down enough of them to make our losses well worth while.

THE Russians continue to make progress in the south, and seem to be on the point of driving the Germans completely out of the Ukraine.

Alcatraz Break Leader Facing Murder Charge

EVERETT, Wash., Mar. 25 (AP) Charges of first degree murder have been filed against Henry Young, 32, convicted bank robber now confined in Alcatraz prison, and Snohomish County Prosecutor Leslie Cooper said ar-restments are being made with federal authorities to bring him here for trial.

Young is charged with having killed William Buching, bakery proprietor, October 31, 1941, a few days after having been released from the Washington state penitentiary. The charges are based Cooper said, on new, but still secret evidence.

Young, who once styled himself "one of the most desperate criminals in the United States," led the sensational but unsuccessful prison break from Alcatraz in 1941. Cooper said. He now is serving a total of 23 years for the robbery of the Lamont state bank and manslaughter in connection with the death of a fellow convict whose making the break with Young were killed.

Oregon State Grange Convention Dates Set

GRANTS PASS, Ore., Mar. 20
 (AP) The Oregon State grange will hold its annual convention in Grants Pass June 12 through June 16. It was announced by Panama Grange Master C.
 H. Brooks of Josephine county.

Wide Horizons has been cancelled for this Sunday afternoon.
 Instead you'll hear Winston Churchill speaking. Sorry that's all, but you can be sure he is at work's worth listening to. And in remarks on the construction of that sentence, mostly of the A.
 A. P., brings you the sad tale of Gue, tall gunner of the "Lovin' Lulu." Gue is in love and when he's in love his shots miss the target. You'll hear all about it at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.
 Russell Bennett's latest symphony, "The Four Freedoms," based on the Norman Rockwell paintings, will highlight the concert of the Cleveland Symphony at 9. They are broadcasting from Harrisburg, Pa., and Dr. Frank Black guest conducts again this week. Columbia Melodics at 8 and Jack Benny at 8:30 are the other "don't miss" spots on Sunday.

Turning back to tonight it's "Focus" on Chicago Theatre of the Air, and Downbeat Derby's check house for the week is "Join Us in a Sing" that's at 8 you know. James Shatto, Kansas City big-league specialist, and his vocalists, Walter Brown, will be guests. So gather 'round you baseballs and record collectors—this is your dish.

Whispering Campaign Backfiring, Morse Says

INDEPENDENT, Mar. 25 (AP) W. V. Morse, republican candidate for the U. S. senate, declared in a radio address last night that a whispering campaign charging him with being "pro labor, pro-Harry Bridges, pro-dead and pro-Roosevelt" is back-firing as the facts become known.

DAILY DEVOTIONS
 DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

The life of victory is an achievement of the Christian faith. Indeed, John declares:
 "This is the victory that overcometh the world." Some one has taken the letters that form the word "Faith" and developed this: "Forsaking All I Take Him." Another says that faith is believing God and asking no questions. This is the secret of victory because it leads to obedience and conformity to the will of God. Soul victory can never be attained by our own endeavors. It is a spiritual achievement. People who are enjoying a happy victorious Christian experience tell us that when they ceased doubting and surrendered their lives to Christ they entered into the victory of soul rest and learned the secret of the Lord. Note the contrast in the experience of St. Paul as set forth in Romans. In chapter seven we witness the agonizing soul struggle: "O wretched man that I am." In chapter eight we can almost hear the shout of victory, as he ex-claims, we are more than conquerors, through him that loved us, neither death nor life can separate us from God when we avail ourselves of the promises of God in Christ Jesus. Amen.
