ROSEBURG WOMAN'S CLUB SEWING MEETING IS ENJOYED ON TUESDAY

The Roseburg Woman's club met at the clubhouse Tuesday afternoon to make lap robes for the Red Cross. Mrs. M. A. Murdoch and Mrs. E. L. Knapp were in charge of the sewing and Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, president, was in charge of the meeting.

Mrs. Louis Albert Banks gave a splendid roll-call Bible talk on the subject, "The Jews and the Arabs." Those enjoying the meeting were Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, Mrs. Louis Albert Banks, Mrs. Len B. Fishback, Mrs. C. H. Bailey, Miss Estelle Conover, Mrs. George M. Brown, Miss Marie Martens, Mrs. M. A. Murdoch, Mrs. E. L. Knapp, Miss Jennie Jorrv, Mrs. O. S. Chambers, Mrs. A. J. Geddes, Mrs. Foster Butler, Mrs. A. S. Coen, Mrs. S. L. Dillard, Mrs. J. F. Dillard, Mrs. H. W. Lanz, Mrs. Homer W. Grow and Mrs. L. A. Wells.

The club will meet at a one-thirty o'clock dessert-luncheon at the clubhouse April 4, at which time Mrs. W. F. Chapman and Mrs. R. R. Brand will be guest speakers and Mrs. Banks will give the roll-call Bible talk.

Mrs. Chapman will talk on visiting some of America's foremost azalea gardens on a trip, which she took with her husband a few years ago through the southern states to the east coast. Mrs. Chapman has one of the most beautiful gardens in this section and she has a large collection of rare azaleas in addition to many other unusual and beautiful plants. Mrs. Brand, a past president of the club, is to give a book review and members are anticipating much pleasure in hearing this program.

Marries in Roseburg Thursday

Miss Ada Jane Chalmers, beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Chalmers, of Roseburg, became the bride of Corporal Charles Raymond Dick, Jr., son of Charles R. Dick, Sr., of Warren, Oregon, Thursday, March 23, at the First Presbyterian church.

Rev. Thomas Robinson, uncle of the bride, Newberg, Ore., performed the impressive double ring ceremony at two o'clock in the presence of close friends and relatives of the couple.

A very lovely setting of daffodils and quince was arranged for the service. Preceding the ceremony and during the service, Mrs. Homer W. Grow played on the pipe organ. Dr. Morris H. Roach, pastor of the church, gave the opening prayer.

The bride was very lovely in a white silk jersey frock. She carried a white Bible and wore a corsage of pink carnations. Miss Elizabeth F. Campbell, of Roseburg, was maid of honor and was charming in a yellow-colored frock. Her corsage was of white carnations. Mrs. Chalmers, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Rena Robinson, grandmother of the bride, Newberg, both wore coral sashes of gardenias. Charles R. Dick, Sr., acted as best man for his son.

Out of town guests attending included: Rev. Thomas Robinson and Mrs. Rena Robinson, of Newberg, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Helmbold, of Oakland, Calif.; Charles R. Dick, Sr., and son, Norman, of Warren, Ore.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Chalmers home. The beautifully appointed buffet table was centered with a three-tiered decorated white wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom. Members of the family and the bridal party attended.

The bride is one of Roseburg's most attractive members of the younger set. She was graduated from Roseburg high school, attended Park college in Missouri and business college in Portland, after which she was employed with the Aetna Life Insurance company in that city. The bridegroom attended school at Warren, Oregon, and was graduated from Oregon State college. He is a member of Sigma Nu fraternity and is an army handman.

Mrs. L. L. Wimberly very graciously entertained the M. O. A. club at her beautiful home, "Pine Ridge," Wednesday afternoon. Gorgeous bouquets of colorful spring flowers were attractively arranged about the rooms.

Mrs. C. B. Calkins, president, conducted a short business meeting, at which time a collection was taken for the Red Cross War Fund Drive. The club voted to discontinue meetings for the duration.

At the tea hour, Mrs. Wimberly served delicious refreshments to: Mrs. C. B. Calkins, president, Mrs. E. A. Helmbold, of Oakland, Calif., Mrs. Max Meyers, Mrs. E. G. Cloake, Mrs. C. W. Cook, Mrs. George Powers, Mrs. J. A. Wood, Mrs. Bertie E. Alexander, of Spokane, Wash., and Mrs. Roy Good.

Mrs. Robert C. Snoddy very graciously entertained her pinocle club at the beautiful home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Dillard, on South Jackson street Wednesday evening. Colorful spring flowers were attractively arranged about the rooms, while the serving table was centered with a bouquet of forsythia.

Pinocle was in play during the evening with Miss Maxine Bailey winning the prize. Later in the evening Mrs. Snoddy and her mother, Mrs. Dillard, served a charming buffet supper to: Miss Maxine Bailey, Miss Frances Hutchins, Miss Verna Guile, Miss Lois Updike, Miss Eleanor Fies and Miss Lois Pounds.

Mrs. E. M. Seeley very graciously entertained the West Melrose club at her home Thursday afternoon. The social hours were pleasantly spent in visiting and working for the Red Cross. Several beautiful lap robes were completed and more are in the making.

Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Seeley to: Mrs. Rose Graving, a guest, and Mrs. G. W. Cooper, Mrs. Amy Critser, Mrs. George Osterman, Mrs. Henry Cox, Mrs. H. E. Evans and Mrs. H. G. Thompson.

The next meeting will be April 6 at the home of Mrs. Thompson. All members are cordially invited to be present.

MOTOR CORPS HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING AT CATCHING HOME

The Motor Corps met Tuesday evening at the attractive home of Mrs. Roy Catching. Flowering current and daffodils formed pretty bouquets about the rooms.

A surprise handkerchief shower was given to Mrs. Guy Cordon, who is leaving soon for Washington, D. C., to make her home. Contract bridge was the diversion of the pleasant evening hours with Mrs. Cordon winning the high score.

Later in the evening Mrs. Catching served delicious refreshments to: Mrs. L. L. Wimberly, captain, Mrs. Guy Cordon, Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Miss Agnes Pitchford, Miss Ila Lauback, Mrs. H. L. Bailey, Mrs. D. W. Hellwell, Mrs. George K. Quine and Mrs. Eugene McElroy.

The next meeting will be April 18 at the Nurses home at the Facility with Miss Margaret N. Johnson as hostess.

CLUB MEMBERS AND HUSBANDS ENTERTAIN AT LOVELY PARTY

A delightful party was given by the West Melrose club members and their husbands Saturday evening at the Critser home in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Amy Critser and Mrs. Henry Cox. Lovely gifts were presented to the guests of honor.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Critser, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cox, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Thompson, David Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Seeley, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Cooper and grandson, Darrell Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Ray S. Petregrin, Dick Beasley, E. G. Spielvogel, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Evans and Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee Yates.

RIVERSDALE H. E. C. HAS ENJOYABLE LUNCHEON-MEETING

The Riversdale Home Economics club held a delightful 12:30 potluck luncheon Friday at the attractive home of Mrs. C. E. Marks on the country club road. Mrs. R. B. Hampton, president, reported a large quantity of woolen materials had been gathered for the Red Cross to be made into lap robes for service men.

The club passed a resolution to support the drive for securing a women's home demonstration agent for Douglas county.

Mrs. Clifford Hess was welcomed into the club as a new member. Other members enjoying the occasion with Mrs. Marks included: Viola Chilson, Belle Walker, Rose Gobreille, Dessie Tipton, Wanda Ware, Hannah Cook, Lucy Cloake, Kathryn Evens, Ramona Hampton and Arlene Meyers.

The next meeting will be a 12:30 potluck luncheon April 14 at the home of Belle Walker with Kathryn Evens and Mary Love in charge of the program. Each member is requested to bring a pot-holder for the grange kitchen.
