PUBLIC INVITED TO CAMELLIA EXHIBIT ON SATURDAY, APRIL 8

The Roseburg Woman's club has invited the public to attend the annual camellia exhibit to be held at the clubhouse Saturday, April 8, from 10 a. m. to 9 p. m.

Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, president, has asked all camellia growers in the county to participate in the show by exhibiting their camellias, narcissi and primroses.

Mrs. H. O. Pargeter and Mrs. Velle Broadway will be co-chairmen of the arrangements of the exhibit and Mrs. Foster Butner, Mrs. R. W. Masters and Mrs. H. E. Carter will serve as hostesses. Assisting at the door will be Mrs. A. S. Coen, Miss Estelle Conover and Mrs. O. S. Chambers.

There will be no admission charge as a free-will offering will be taken to defray expenses for sponsoring the exhibit.

Considerable enthusiasm has been shown by growers throughout the community for the growing of camellias and many gardeners have added numerous plants to their gardens since the sponsoring by the club of the first camellia exhibit under the presidency of Mrs. Harry F. Hatfield. Every year, the exhibit has become larger and more beautiful as more and more exhibitors take part and greater numbers of blossoms are available for display.

DEPARTMENT PRESIDENT TO BE IN ROSEBURG ON SATURDAY, APRIL 8

George Starmer auxiliary to United Spanish War Veterans will receive an official visit from the department president of Oregon, Edith E. Parks, of Newberg, at a no-hostess six-thirty o'clock dinner Saturday evening, April 8, at the Grand hotel.

Following the dinner, a joint meeting of the camp and auxiliary will be held at 8 o'clock at the L. O. O. F. hall.

Mrs. Parks will make her headquarters in the Umpqua hotel and during the afternoon will visit the veterans facility.

TWO PLAYS TO BE PRESENTED AT GLIDE

GLIDE—The Glide high school will present two plays, "Who Gets the Car Tonight?" and "Bachelors Baby" at 8 o'clock Friday evening, April 7, at the school auditorium. An admission charge will be made.

Following the plays, the P. T. A. will sell ice cream, cake, pie and coffee to raise money for 4-H scholarships. The public is cordially invited to attend.

LODGE MEETING IS HELD MONDAY NIGHT

Maple lodge No. 127 Myrtle Creek met at the hall Monday evening with about 80 in attendance. Members from Eastern Star and Masonic lodges of South Douglas county were present.

Frank Burr and Carl Martin presented the entertainment. Mrs. Ed Hallinger, worthy nation, and Victor Cornutt, master of chapter No. 127 presided.

Colored pictures taken in Alaska by Ed Payton were enjoyed.

MRS. MELLIUS IS HOSTESS TO CLUB

TENMILE—Mrs. Bert Mellius was a most gracious hostess to the Tenmile Women's society of Christian service, at her home in Reston on Wednesday afternoon. There was a good crowd in attendance and the afternoon was spent in knitting and sewing for the Red Cross, also a number of sheets were made for Mrs. Sherman who recently lost her house and contents by fire. At the tea hour a dainty lunch was served to: Mrs. Walter Coats, Mrs. Lawrence McCaffery, Mrs. Johnny Cahot, Mrs. Minnie Rathkey, Mrs. Emma Swift, Mrs. Howard Erbe, Mrs. Leon Simpson, Mrs. Joe Flora, Mrs. John Rathkey, Mrs. Rilla Hahn, Mrs. Jim Henry, Mrs. Harry Smith, Mrs. John F. Brown, Miss Agnes Johnson, Mrs. Minnie Lockwood and the hostess, Mrs. Bert Mellius. Mr. and Mrs. Mellius came to Tenmile from Bellflower, Calif., about a year ago and purchased the Klein place, in Reston, which they have made into one of the most attractive places in the neighborhood. Mr. Mellius is a carpenter and has remodeled the entire interior of the home, adding a fireplace and various other improvements. Lovely spring flowers added a color note to the living room for the meeting and were later given to Miss Agnes Johnson for her aged mother who was unable to attend on account of poor health. The club has contacted the state college at Corvallis for speakers on various subjects of interest to women and have been given a promise of a woman to speak on nutrition, the use and preparation of frozen foods, and cold storage lockers for farm people, in the near future. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Joe Flora on the Gramma Cahot place on Wednesday afternoon, April 12.

FAREWELL PARTY GIVEN FOR MRS. ELLA HIGGINS

RED CROSS BENEFIT IS SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR

TILLER—The Box Social given by the Tiller and Drew communities for the benefit of the American Red Cross was a highly successful affair in every way. The total proceeds for the evening was $203. Every lady brought an attractive decorated box with supper for two. Coffee was served to everyone and was donated by Mrs. Frank Tighe. The auctioneers for the event were Mr. Ben Benson and Mr. Frank Tighe, dressed as comedians, and they kept everyone in laughter. Other entertainment was music furnished by Iva Poole, Mr. George Norman, Mr. Ben Benson and Mrs. Marion Howell, together with everyone joining in singing old fashioned songs. Special guests were Mrs. Ellen Post, Mrs. Vogt and Mrs. E. Litter of Roseburg. Special thanks are extended to the forestry service for its contribution in time, work or money. The money will be used for the Red Cross room also a contribution will be made to the cause. The room, dressed up in new curtains, made by Mrs. Logan Hartley, new linoleum, with the attractive display of many while at the social. The group meets every Wednesday at 10 a. m.

Mrs. Richard Riggs and daughters, Harriet Ann and Leon, were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Pinkston's home in Oakland, Ore., Sunday.

MR. LAMOREAUX IS HONORED AT DINNER

SUTHERLIN—Mrs. Edward Lamoreaux entertained a number of friends and relatives at her home on First avenue Sunday with a birthday chicken dinner for her husband. The table was very beautiful with a centerpiece of narcissi and flowering quince.

Regular commercial flours work fine for big commercial bakers... BUT you'll do better baking with a home-type flour

Here's why home-type Kitchen Craft Flour gives better results in all your home baking

Kitchen Craft is light-bodied: It mixes smoothly and quickly with other home-type ingredients to give fine even texture in all your home-baked foods.

Kitchen Craft is properly milled: Retains desirable moisture in your pastries, cakes and breads in spite of the drier heat of home ovens.

Kitchen Craft is dependably uniform: Absorbs the same amount of water each time—so you can follow your recipes to the letter.

I'VE FOUND OUT! HOME BAKING IS DIFFERENT. THIS HOME-TYPE FLOUR...KITCHEN CRAFT... HAS DONE WONDERS FOR ALL MY BAKING!

Lighter, more delicate cakes... finer textured breads... flakier pie crust. That's the kind of results you get with Kitchen Craft Flour. Not just once in a while but every single time!

Because this fine home-type flour is specially milled and blended to work perfectly in home-size recipes. To mix quickly and easily with other home-type ingredients. It gives you more nourishing baked foods, too. Every sack of Kitchen Craft Flour is now enriched with B vitamins and iron.

Try this top quality all-purpose flour today. If for any reason Kitchen Craft Flour fails to please you, return the unused portion to your grocer and get back your full purchase price.
