Roseburg Girl Marries in California

Acacia, daffodils and roses banked the fireplace at the William B. Smullin home on Del Norte street, Eureka, Calif., for the pretty wedding ceremony, when Ensign William Theodore Rayburn Saari, of Pine City, Minn., claimed Elizabeth Jean Byrd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Byrd, of Roseburg, as his bride, March 5. The nuptials took place at one-thirty o'clock.

Attendants were Miss Betty Matthias and Ensign Roger Sloan. The bridal procession advanced to the improvised altar and the ritual was played and the ceremony was read by Rev. R. R. Pulliam, Baptist clergyman.

The lovely bride, tithian haired and one of the most attractive young ladies in Eureka, wore a long white chiffon wedding gown with gardenias in her hair and she carried a bridal bouquet of gardenias and yellow rosebuds. Miss Matthias wore a becoming pink formal frock and carried pink rosebuds.

The reception was held at the Smullin home, where spring flowers were arranged about the rooms and on the bride's table around the wedding cake, which was cut by the bride and bridegroom and served by the former's sister, Mrs. R. R. Levy, nee Lois Byrd, of Portland, Ore. Mrs. Robert Byrd, of Grants Pass, sister-in-law of the bride, poured and assisted in the serving were: Mrs. James Martin, Mrs. Robert Lundeen, associates of the bride at KIEM radio station, and Miss Betty Fuller, sister-in-law of W. B. Smullin.

Out-of-town guests included the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Byrd of Roseburg; her sister, Mrs. R. R. Levy, of Portland; her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Byrd, of Grants Pass, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Earl Byrd, of Roseburg.

For traveling, the bride chose a powder blue suit with white and navy accessories and following the reception the bride and bridegroom left for a brief honeymoon, after which they returned to live in an apartment at 1143 K street, Eureka, Calif.

The bride is a popular member of the younger set of Roseburg. She was graduated from Roseburg high school and Sacramento Junior college at Sacramento, Calif., where she majored in dramatics and radio subjects and appeared in many college productions. For the last three months, she has been engaged as radio announcer-technician at KIEM, Eureka, California. In addition to her family who attended the wedding, she has three brothers, Earl Byrd, of Roseburg; Lt. Ira Byrd of Fort Stockton, Texas, and Corporal Roy Byrd, New York.

The bridegroom attended schools in Minnesota before enlisting in the Navy. He was graduated from Lakehurst, New Jersey, where he was commissioned an ensign. He is stationed at the Humboldt Bay Naval Section base, lighter-than-air division. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. William M. Saari of Pine City, Minn., and his brothers and sister, David, Goefrey and Lois, live there.

Miss Virginia Klauenhammer, a former student at Roseburg senior high school, is home visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Klauenhammer, 546 South Pine street, in Roseburg. She is awaiting orders to take her final physical examination for the Army Nurse Corps. She completed nursing training at the Seton school of Nursing, Colorado Springs, Colorado, after which she went to Denver, Colorado, to take her state board examination.

Marry in Roseburg, March 12

On Sunday, March 12, Miss Doris Ruth Lewis, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lewis of Roseburg, and Fireman 1/2 George W. James, son of George W. James, Sr., of Salem, were married at a quiet ceremony at the bride's home.

Mrs. Grant Phillips played the appropriate music, "I Love You Truly" and "Because" preceding the service. Dr. C. A. Edwards read the impressive ring ceremony. The bride was attractive in a two piece navy blue rayon sheer. The corsage was of white carnations. The bride's mother was dressed in a soldier blue pin stripe suit with black accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. The house was beautifully decorated with yellow jonquils and sprays of green.

Close friends and relatives who attended the ceremony were: Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lewis, parents of the bride; Mr. George W. James, Sr., father of the groom; Miss Betty Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Burley Lewis, Miss Thelma Lewis, Mrs. Grant Phillips and Mrs. Robert M. Johnson.

The bride and groom were both popular members of Roseburg high school and graduated in 1943.

After spending a short leave in Roseburg, the groom left for Shoemaker, California, to resume training. The bride will make her home in Roseburg until it is possible for her to join her husband in California.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Chamberlin and daughter, Miss Ida, entertained as dinner guests at their lovely home on Court street Tuesday evening. Chaplain Draper Bishop and his wife from Camp White, Medford, and Miss Alice Virginia Hanes.

Chaplain Bishop is a close friend of the Chamberlins' son, Chaplain Albert Chamberlin, who is serving on a U. S. airplane carrier. The two attended Garrett Seminary together at Evanston, Ill., and Chaplain Bishop was an usher at Chaplain Chamberlin's wedding in Chicago and when Chaplain Bishop was married, Chaplain Chamberlin played the wedding music.

Chaplain Bishop stopped over here with his wife en route to Camp Adair, Corvallis, where he has recently been transferred.
